Government of Bengal.

Water Communication between Dacca and Sylhet.

Survey of the Kossiara River and of a proposed Road from Phenchoogunge to Sylhet.

From BRIGADIER-GENERAL ST. G. D. SHOWERS, C. B., Commanding Presidency Division, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal,—(dated Head-Quarters, Flat Koonaie, off Phenchoogunge, on the River Kossiara, the 17th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to report my arrival at this place, and I consider it of importance to state, for the information of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, that the Flat Koonaie, in tow of the Steamer Tay, with the Head-Quarters and greater portion of the 33rd Native Infantry, made the passage to this without any obstructions from want of water in the rivers or narrowness of the channel.

2. From intelligence I received in Calcutta of the want of water in the Megna and its tributary streams, I had directed the two Detachments who preceded me to land at Lukkye and march thence to Sylhet, a distance of about fifty miles. As this country is destitute of means of transport by land, and the route by land to Sylhet is intersected by numerous small streams, the march of the Detachments was attended with delay and difficulty.

3. After the arrival of the Steamer Tay at Dacca, Captain Jowett, the Commander, ascertained from the various Pilots who were acquainted with these rivers that Phenchoogunge, a Village only a long day's march from Sylhet, could be approached by proceeding up the River Kossiara. As the accounts of the Pilots were sufficiently decisive, Captain Jowett consented to undertake to land the Troops there.

4. The passage has been quite successful, and I beg to recommend that in future all boats with Troops and Stores destined for Sylhet may be landed at Phenchoogunge, and sent across by land.

5. From the concurrent statements of all from whom I enquired, it is evident that in the shallowest places, where the water of the Kossiara is at the lowest, there is never less than ten feet of water.

6. To facilitate the navigation the rivers should be surveyed, but it may be proper to state now, as a guide to Steamers that may have to come up before the survey is completed, that the river route lies by Lukkye and Azmeergunj. About four hours steaming above Azmeergunj the mouth of the Kossiara is entered, after which its course is to be followed till it reaches Phenchoogunge.

7. It is three whole days steaming to Phenchoogunge from Dacca, it will probably take two days to return, and as a Steamer and Flat can carry six days supply of coal on board, there would not be even the necessity of having a depôt of coals on the route.

8. If this suggestion should be adopted, it would be advisable to have a raised metalled road made between Phenchoogunge and Sylhet, so that carts might travel along it at all seasons.

9. I have requested Captain Jowett to draw up a Report of his opinion of the navigation of the Kossiara.

From E. H. LUSHINGTON, ESQ., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, to BRIGADIER-GENERAL ST. G. D. SHOWERS, C. B., Commissioner of the Cossyah and Jynteeah Hills,—(dated the 22nd April 1862.)

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 14A, dated the 17th ultimo, reporting the successful passage of the Flat Koonaie, in tow of the Steamer Tay, with the 33rd Native Infantry up to a place called Phenchoogunge, a long day's march from Sylhet, and suggesting that in future the water communication with Sylhet may be kept up to that place and a metalled road constructed joining it with Sylhet.

2. In reply, I am desired to convey to you the Lieutenant-Governor's thanks for your valuable suggestion. The Marine Authorities have been requested to order a survey of the river up to Phenchoogunge, and instructions will be issued from the Public Works Department of this Office for a survey of the proposed road from that place to Sylhet.

Government of Bengal.

Military Operations in the Cossyah and Jynteeah Hills.

From BRIGADIER-GENERAL ST. G. D. SHOWERS, C. B., Commanding the Presidency Division, to the Adjutant-General of the Army,—(dated Head Quarters, the 26th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward, for submission to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a Report from Colonel H. F. Dunsford, C. B., Commanding the Troops in Sylhet, of the successful attack of the stockaded Village of "Raliang" by the Troops under his Command on the 20th instant.

2. I beg to call His Excellency's attention to the excellent arrangements made by Colonel Dunsford in planning the attack on this position, and to the completeness of his plans for surrounding the Village of "Munsow," to which may be attributed the evacuation of this strongly fortified position without resistance.

3. I have also to submit, for His Excellency's favorable consideration, the good conduct and cheerful spirit displayed by the Troops engaged in these harassing operations.

From COLONEL H. F. DUNSFORD, C. B., Commanding Troops in Sylhet, to the Assistant Adjutant General of the Presidency Division,—(dated the 23rd March 1862.)

MY Progress Report which I forward with this, for submission to Brigadier-General Showers, C. B., Commanding the Presidency Division, will have informed you of my having engaged the Rebels at Raliang on the 20th instant. I have now the honor to transmit a more detailed account of the action.

The Village of Raliang is situated about twenty miles east north-east of Jowai, and is a large and prosperous town built as most of the Villages in this part of the country, and in a very scattered manner, the houses being in clusters of three and four together on the slopes of hills with ravines running between the different clusters; they are well raised, substantially built of wood, with plank or matted walls, and thatched roofs.

Major Rowlatt, the Deputy Commissioner of the Cossyah Hills, who accompanies me, had received intimation from his spies that the place was strongly stockaded, and we might anticipate considerable opposition. I marched from Shamphong with the Force as per margin, and on approaching within about two hundred yards of the stockade of Raliang, which is distant from the Village about a quarter of a mile, I found a strong stockade had been thrown across the road, extending, in a semi-circular form, about 250 yards, the strongest part of which lay immediately across the road (a narrow foot-path) by which I was advancing.

44TH REGIMENT NATIVE INFANTRY.
4 European Officers.
3 Native Officers.

The former experience of Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson, Commanding Her Majesty's 44th Regiment Native Infantry, and Major Rowlatt, had taught them that the stockade on the pathway was always the strongest and most obstinately defended, and thus cautioned me to avoid an assault on that if possible, I therefore directed a Company of the 28th Regiment Punjab Infantry, and a Company of the 44th Regiment Native Infantry to endeavor to turn the flanks, but, owing to the deep and precipitous ravines in front, this was found impracticable, and they simultaneously attacked each side, and under a heavy fire of matchlocks and arrows carried it with a rush; the loss to the Rebels was not very severe, as we found only two bodies in the entrenchment and three said to have been killed by the parties I immediately sent into the ravines in pursuit. The entrenchment consisted of a ditch about three feet deep and as many wide, filled with a chevaux de frise of sharp spiked bamboos; the earth had been thrown up as a breastwork and was heavily loop-holed and crowned by a thick palisade of spiked closely entwined bamboos six or seven feet high; the density of the jungle favored the retreat of the Rebels, and, lightly equipped as they are, when once they get into the ravines and jungles it is almost hopeless to pursue; our loss was trifling, being two men slightly wounded with arrows, and four by bamboo stakes. The stockade and village had been totally destroyed, and I yesterday made a march on this place, which is also heavily stockaded; but the Rebels, seeing I had made arrangements to attack them on all sides at once, again resorted to their ravines and jungles, and we entered without opposition an extensive double line of stockade, which it must have taken some eight hundred or a thousand men hard labor for a month to erect; this is the first occasion of their giving up a stockade without some shew of resistance, and may, I hope, be taken as an indication of their feeling the contest to be hopeless, and that they may now soon return to their more peaceable pursuits; although their loss of life may not have been considerable, they will for many years feel the loss of property the rebellion has cost them, as it has been the Deputy Commissioner's policy throughout to destroy all stockaded villages, a duty he has been enabled to carry out by the success which has hitherto attended all the assaults made by Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson and his gallant Regiment.

The health and spirits of Officers and Men are excellent, though the duties have been harassing. Our future movements will depend upon the reports received by the Deputy Commissioner.

From COLONEL H. F. DUNSFORD, C. B., Commanding Troops in Sylhet, to CAPTAIN E. K. O. GILBERT, Assistant Adjutant-General, Presidency Division,—(dated the 23rd March 1862.)

FOR the information of Brigadier-General Showers, C. B., Commanding the Presidency Division, I have the honor to report progress since the date of my last communication, dated 15th instant.

16th March.—Entered the Cossyah Hills from Jynteeahpore to Amwai Poonjee, a distance of twenty miles, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson and Major Rowlatt, leaving a Detachment of sixty-three Rank and File of the 44th Regiment Native Infantry under a Native Officer at Jynteeahpore. My former letter reported the arrangements I had made for the protection of the Southern portion of these Hills by the Detachment of the 28th Regiment Punjab Infantry, under the Command of Captain Robinson, and Detachments of the 44th Regiment Native Infantry at Moollagool and Gowaneghat.

17th March.—From Amwai Poonjee to Jowai, a distance of twelve miles, leaving a Detachment of thirty-four Rank and File under a Native Officer for the former place.

18th March.—From Jowai to the Villages of Chota and Burra Lattabur, the former a strong stockaded Village which had been previously carried by Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson, the latter deserted but not stockaded as was represented, and consequently spared at the request of the Deputy Commissioner, whose policy it has been throughout to spare those Villages which have shewn no menacing attitude, although the feelings and actions of the occupants may have been otherwise unfriendly. Returned to Jowai about sunset.

19*th March.*—From Jowai to Shamphong, about twelve miles. This Village had been strongly stockaded and been carried with severe loss to the Rebels by one of Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson's spirited attacks and was supposed to have been again placed in a state of defence, but I found it much the same as he represents it to have been left; a few shots and arrows fired on our pickets from the jungles at night, but without effect.

20*th March.*—Left Shamphong for Raliang at 9 A. M. and arrived about 11 before a strong stockade, covering the south-western front of the Village and extending semi-circularly about 250 yards. The entrance or gateway being in the centre, exactly in the road (a narrow foot-path) commanded by a flanking fire on each side, the Village being surrounded by dense jungle of forest and under-wood with deep ravines (or korrungs as they are here termed) immediately in front. The stockade consisted of a ditch about three feet wide and as many deep with a chevaux de frise of sharp pointed bamboos at the bottom and for many yards in advance of it. The earth from the ditch had been thrown up as an embankment to about six feet high, loop-holed and surmounted by thick closely entwined bamboos about the same height as the ditch. On approaching within 200 yards of the place I threw a Company of the 28th, and a Company of the 44th Regiment Native Infantry into skirmishing order with directions to turn the flanks, but this was found impracticable from the deep ravines to their front. Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson and Major Rowlatt had given me the benefit of their former experience, and cautioned me against an attack in front, which the Rebels were always prepared for and made their strongest and best defended position, the attack was consequently made on both flanks at once by the skirmishers and carried with the trifling loss of two men slightly wounded by arrows, and four by stakes of pointed bamboos. The Rebels dispersed down the ravines and dense jungles, and I at once sent out skirmishers in pursuit, but the density of the jungles renders such pursuit almost hopeless, and against men so lightly equipped and acquainted with every work and bye-path. We killed two Rebels within the stockade and three are reported to have been killed in the jungle; it is difficult to estimate the number opposed to us on this occasion, but I should imagine, from the sharp fusilade kept on us on our approach, the Rebels must have had about forty or fifty fire-arms, and have numbered in all from three to four hundred; the two killed in the entrenchment were armed with matchlocks and their weapons have been captured. The Village of Raliang is apparently a large and prosperous one; the houses good and well stored with rice in the husk; it will be destroyed on our leaving it, unless the ringleaders succumb. Bivouacked for the night in the Village, the pickets constantly fired on but without loss.

21*st March.*—Left Raliang with an escort of twenty-five men of the 28th Regiment Punjab Infantry, and the same number of the 44th Regiment Native Infantry, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson and Major Rowlatt, to reconnoitre the Village of Munsow, a distance of about twelve miles; the country for the most part open and undulating with a tolerable road. An occasional shot from scouts from the jungles, but without effect. Got within about 300 yards of the stockade, which I found extended about a quarter of a mile from south-west to north-east along the crest of a high Hill with a flanking stockade running due east at the foot of the Hill; the ravines on the east very steep but not very thickly wooded, those on the west steep and dense jungle. Returned to Raliang about sunset, the stockades of which were burnt during my absence.

23*rd March*—Left Raliang, accompanied by all the Force at my disposal, at 8 A. M., leaving a strong rear Guard with instructions to burn the Town, and arrived opposite Munsow about eleven. Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson, with a party of fifty of the 28th Regiment Punjab Infantry, and fifty of the 44th Regiment Native Infantry, made a detour to the right to take the Rebels in rear if possible, with instructions to fire a volley as a signal on getting into position; a similar number of the same Regiment under my own personal Command were held in readiness for the assault in the north-eastern front. A party of fifty men, under Captain Buist, Adjutant, 44th Regiment Native Infantry, to make a false attack on the south, their strongest point, a party of twenty men under a Native Officer to scour the ravines and jungles on the west, and Lieutenant Bartleman, with fifty Sepoys of the 43rd Regiment Native Infantry, whom I had previously summoned to co-operate with me from Nurteng, to look out for stragglers on the north and north-west. All our arrangements were completed by twelve, and with every chance of success, when we found, on advancing, the place was completely evacuated and the extensive fortifications, which must have taken some eight hundred or a thousand men for about a month to construct, were left undefended. I have had men scouring the ravines and jungles all day, but from the extreme difficulty of the country the Rebels are enabled to effect their escape with impunity, and three of their number only have been killed. From their making no attempt to defend a stockade, which it has cost them so much labor and expense to erect, it may, I think, be inferred that they feel it now hopeless to contend against the Force brought against them. I intend to halt to-morrow to destroy the defences, and my subsequent movements will depend on the reports brought in of the Rebels.

The health and spirits of both Officers and Men in these harassing duties are excellent.

From BRIGADIER-GENERAL SR. G. D. SHOWERS, C. B., Commanding the Presidency Division, to the Adjutant-General of the Army,—(dated Head-Quarters, the 27th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that I formed my Head-Quarters at this place on the 25th instant, and found that Colonel Dunsford, C. B., with the Force under his Command, had the day before returned from his expedition against "Raliang" and "Munsow," the Report of which I have submitted with my letter No. 29A. of the 26th instant.

2. I have now the pleasure to forward, for submission to His Excellency and for the information of Government, a Report from Major Rowlatt, the Deputy Commissioner of the District, stating that the Rebels had dispersed in small parties, and that there is but little probability of their attempting any further combined resistance, and recommending that four or five of the principle Villages of the Rebels should be occupied by our Detachments, so as to afford any necessary aid to the Police in restoring the pacification of the District.

3. This successful result of our Military operations in the District is very satisfactory. It is to be attributed to the activity of Colonel H. F. Dunsford, C. B., immediately on assuming Command of the Troops, and to the previous operations of Lieutenant-Colonel W. Richardson, Commanding 44th Native Infantry.

4. I have already reported my opinion of Colonel Dunsford's expedition against the stockaded Villages of "Raliang" and "Munsow," and it is now my duty to bring to the favorable notice of His Excellency the spirited and well-planned assaults made by Lieutenant-Colonel W. Richardson and the small body of men under his Command on the stockaded positions of "Jalong," "Munsow," "Latoober," and "Ooksaie." The conduct of both these Officers, with the Officers and Men under their Command, from the 28th and 44th Native Infantry, merit the approbation of the Commander-in-Chief and of Government.

5. As arranged with Major Rowlatt, I have directed the Detachments of the 33rd Native Infantry, under the Command of Major Longmore and Lieutenant Walcott, to continue their march on the Villages of "Satongah" and "Bato," and on their occupying these positions they will maintain them until further orders.

6. The Villages of "Nurteng," "Munsow," and "Nongtalong" will also be held by Detachments from the 28th and 44th Native Infantry, and Colonel Dunsford, C. B., Commanding in the District, will have his Head-Quarters at "Jowaie." These Detachments will have outposts in the Villages in the vicinity, and will send out parties to patrol the country, and it will be observed that the positions they occupy will command the whole of the disturbed portion of the District. They are generally within one or two days' march of one another, and no body of Rebels can be assembled, and no stockade built up, without being attacked by one or other of the Detachments.

7. As this is the second time the District has broken out against the State, I have to recommend that these Detachments should retain their posts throughout the rains.

From MAJOR E A. ROWLATT, Deputy Commissioner of the Cossyah and Jynteeah Hills, to BRIGADIER-GENERAL ST. G. D. SHOWERS, C. B., Commanding the Presidency Division,—(dated the 27th March 1862.)

As all the stockaded Villages of the Jynteeah Rebels have now been taken, and the Rebels themselves have dispersed and become scattered in small bodies, there seems, I think, but little probability of their attempting any further combined resistance. All, therefore, that now remains to be done towards the pacification of the country is to occupy these Hills with Troops so as effectually to prevent the Rebels from rallying at any one particular point, and which can, I think, be best effected by placing Detachments of Troops at four or five of the principal Villages, and so distributed that should the Police require the support of the Military, some may be near at hand to afford them the necessary aid. At present the Police Force at my disposal is so limited that they, by themselves, can do but little. I have, however, received permission from the Agent to the Governor-General, North-East Frontier, to raise an additional Force for service in the Jynteeah Hills, and as soon as they are organised they will be employed in apprehending the ringleaders; this done, there will be no chance of further disturbances taking place, and as the Rebel leaders are secured, the Troops might be gradually withdrawn, leaving, of course, a strong Detachment at Jowai, which must, as hitherto, be occupied by a Military Guard of sufficient strength to resist any attacks that could be made against it. I further am of opinion that it will be politic to keep a larger Force in these Hills than that stationed in them previous to the outbreak of the present rebellion, as the small numbers available for active operations at the commencement of the disturbances undoubtedly encouraged the Rebels to resist, and induced many to join in the rebellion, who, if a greater display of Force could have been made at once, would not have ventured to do so.

2. As the above comprises the result of our conference of this morning, I trust you will do me the favor of issuing your orders for carrying the same into effect as soon as may be practicable.

From MAJOR HENRY HOPKINSON, Agent, Governor-General, and Commissioner of Assam, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal,—(dated the 28th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to submit herewith a note which I have just received from Major Rowlatt, as it is possible that being of late date it may reach you earlier than any intelligence he has forwarded the Government direct, and I should be glad that the Government received the earliest intimation that the troubles in Jynteeah promised at length to be coming to a close.

2. It would seem as if the insurrection had died out, or was about to die out, pretty much in the way I reported to Government I thought it would, that the insurgents would give in out of sheer weariness without our having the opportunity of punishing them very severely.

3. I hope Major Rowlatt's messenger will be in time to stop the advance of the Brigadier-General and the two Columns of the 33rd Regiment.

From MAJOR E. A. ROWLATT, Deputy Commissioner of the Cossyah and Jynteeah Hills, to MAJOR HENRY HOPKINSON, Agent, Governor-General, North-East Frontier, and Commissioner of Assam,—(dated the 25th March 1862.)

JUST a line to say that we arrived here yesterday evening from Munsow; we remained there on the 22nd and 23rd, and have left a party of fifty men to prevent the Rebels from rallying again at that place; but as it was not defended I think they now see it is perfectly hopeless to hold out against us any longer, so as far as fighting goes the affair is, I believe, ended. I shall now direct my attention chiefly to getting hold of the ringleaders, and when they are secured, the country will soon settle down quietly. By yesterday's Dâk we received letters from General Showers telling us he had arrived at Cherra Poonjee, and would be here to-day; he told me he had ordered two Columns of the 33rd to enter the Hills, one viâ Muralee, and the other by Burghat. I hope they won't have got far before we shall be able to stop them, as it is quite unnecessary to have any more Troops sent into the Hills. As soon as the General arrives I shall try to get him to settle something regarding the position the stockade here should occupy; the present place is, I consider, untenable. Now, that these Khasseahs are beginning to use fire-arms, it must either be built at some other place here, or, if one is not procurable, at Nurteng. When this is acceded, I shall be able to answer your letter about the roads required in these Hills. I shall also try to get the General to go to Shillong, where I am very anxious to go to meet McRae, who, I hear, is to be there in a day or two. I am glad to see the Government wish to have the road carried on as quickly as possible. I think it must be passable all the way down by this time.

LEGISLATIVE.

Fort William, the 23rd May 1862.

THE following Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it are published for general information by order of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council :—

A Bill for the amendment of the law relating to the confinement of Prisoners convicted of offences in Native States.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is desirable to consolidate and amend the law relating to the confinement of Prisoners who have been convicted of offences in the Territories of Native Princes or States in alliance with Her Majesty and to the execution of the orders of Courts established by the authority of the Governor-General of India in Council for the administration of Criminal Justice in the States or Territories under the authority of the Government of India, or the Government of Madras, or the Government of Bombay respectively; and whereas it is expedient to make the same provision for the secure custody of persons convicted of participation in the offence of Suttee (burning alive) or Sumadh (burying alive) and of such other offences as the Governor-General in Council shall, from time to time, by an order to be published in the Government Gazette, think fit to prescribe, within the Territories of Native Princes or States in alliance with Her Majesty as is already made in regard to persons convicted of Thuggee or Dacoity in such States; It is enacted as follows :—

Repeal of Acts.

I. Act XVIII of 1843 (for the better custody of persons convicted of Thuggee and Dacoity), and Act V of 1847 (to facilitate the execution of the sentences of Courts established by the authority of the Governor-General in Council for the administration of Criminal Justice in States or Territories administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company) are hereby repealed.

Officers in charge of Jails in British India may give effect to sentences passed by Courts of Justice established by the Governor-General in Council in Native States.

II. Officers in charge of Jails in such parts of the British Territories in India, as are beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of any Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be competent to give effect to any sentence that may be passed by any Court established, or that may be established by the authority of the Governor-General of India in Council for the administration of Criminal Justice in States or Territories administered by Officers acting under the authority of the Government of India or the Government of any Presidency in India, although such States or Territories are not subject to such Government, or are not subject to the operation of the General Regulations.

Warrant of Officer exercising Criminal jurisdiction in such States to be sufficient authority.

III. A warrant under the official seal and signature of the Officer or Officers exercising Criminal jurisdiction within such States or Territories as aforesaid, shall be sufficient authority for holding any Prisoner in confinement, or for transmitting any Prisoner for transportation beyond sea, or for inflicting any other punishment prescribed therein.

Executive Government may authorize reception and detention in British India of persons convicted of certain offences in Native States.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government of any part of the British Territories in India to authorize the reception and detention in any part of those Territories, for the periods specified in their respective sentences, of persons sentenced within the Territories of any Native Prince or State in alliance with Her Majesty to imprisonment or transportation for the offence of Thuggee, or Dacoity, or the offence of belonging to any gang of Thugs or Dacoits, or for participation in the offence of Suttee or Sumadh, or for such other offences as the Governor-General in Council shall, from time to time, by an order published in the Government Gazette, think fit to prescribe. Provided always that such sentences shall have been pronounced after trial before a tribunal, in which an Officer of Government, duly authorized in that behalf by such Prince or State, shall be one of the presiding Judges. Every Officer of Government so authorized as aforesaid shall forward with every Prisoner a certificate of his conviction, and a copy of the proceedings held at the trial, that the same may be forthcoming for reference at the place where the sentence of imprisonment may be carried into effect.

If Officer in charge of Jail doubt the legality of any warrant sent to him for execution.

V. If any Officer in charge of a Jail shall entertain any doubt as to the legality of any warrant sent to him for execution under this Act, or as to the competency of the person or persons whose official seal and signature may be affixed thereto to pass the sentence and issue such warrant, such Officer shall refer the matter to the Government to which he is subject, by whose order on the case such Officer and all other public Officers shall be guided as to the future disposal of the Prisoner. Pending any such reference, the Prisoner shall be detained in such manner and with such restrictions or mitigations as may be specified in the warrant.

Provisions of existing laws and rules for the treatment and security of Prisoners generally, to apply to Prisoners confined under this Act.

VI. The provisions of the existing Acts and Regulations, and all other rules in force for the treatment and security of Prisoners confined in the said Jails, shall apply and be of equal force and effect in the case of Prisoners confined therein under this Act as in the case of other Prisoners confined therein.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

IT being considered desirable to extend the provisions of Act XVIII of 1843, which relates to the confinement within the British Territories in India of persons sentenced to imprisonment or transportation for the offences of Thuggee and Dacoity or of belonging to any gang of Thugs or Dacoits within the Territories of any Prince or State in alliance with the British Government, to the offences of Suttee (burning alive) and Sumadh (burying alive) this Bill is introduced for the purpose of extending the Act accordingly.

The Bill also empowers the Governor-General in Council to extend its provisions to any other classes of offences than those mentioned in the Bill.

The Bill proposes to repeal Act XVIII of 1843 and Act V of 1847 (to facilitate the execution of the sentences of Courts established by the authority of the Governor-General in Council for the administration of Criminal Justice in States or Territories administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company), and to consolidate the two Acts as well as to extend the provisions of the former enactment.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 27th May 1862.

THE following Bill, which it is intended to introduce into the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, is, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it, published for general information by order of the Lieutenant Governor :—

A Bill to amend the law regarding the provision of carriage and supplies for Troops and Travellers, and to punish unlawful impressment.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the habitual impressment by the Civil Power, under the Regulations in force in the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal, of carts, cattle, boats, boatmen, and bearers, in order to facilitate the passage of troops through those Provinces, is unnecessary and oppressive; and whereas such impressment is always liable to abuse, and should never be resorted to except on occasions of emergency; and whereas it is unnecessary to authorize travellers to require the assistance of Officers of Police in procuring means of transport, or supplies of provisions or of other articles during their journeys; It is enacted as follows :—

Laws repealed and modified.

I. Sections II and VIII, and Clause 7 Section IX of Regulation XI. 1806 are repealed so far as the same relate to the provinces subject to the Government of. Bengal. Sections III, IV, VI, and VII of the said Regulation, and Regulation VI. 1825, so far as they relate to the said provinces, are modified, and their operation restricted, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Collectors, Magistrates, &c., prohibited from impressing all means of transport, except as hereinafter provided.

II. Except as hereinafter provided, all Collectors and Magistrates, and other Civil Officers, are prohibited from impressing any carts, cattle, boats, boatmen, bearers, coolies, or any other means of transport for any purpose whatsoever; anything in Regulation XI. 1806, or Regulation VI. 1825 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Punishment of Revenue or Police Officers for impressing means of transport or workmen, and for enforcing delivery of provisions, &c. to travellers.

III. Whoever, being an Officer of Revenue or Police, impresses or attempts to impress any cart, cattle, boat, boatman, bearer, cooly, or other means of transport, contrary to the provisions of this Act, or otherwise without authority of law; or impresses or attempts to impress any workman, laborer, or cooly, without authority of law; or enforces or attempts to enforce the delivery of supplies of provisions or other articles to travellers or others, without authority of law—shall be liable, besides dismissal from office, to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two months, or to both.

In cases of emergency, Military Officers in command of troops may, by an order, be authorized to require Collectors and Magistrates to aid in procuring carriage, supplies, &c.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, by an order stating that a case of emergency has arisen, and that it is impossible, by the offer of double the common rates of hire and prices, to obtain the carriage, and to arrange for the provision of supplies required to meet the emergency, to authorize any Military Officer commanding a body or detachment of troops to call upon the Collectors and the Magistrates of Districts or places from, through, or near to which such troops are ordered to march, to aid in procuring all necessary carriage whether by land or water, and all necessary supplies, as well as to facilitate the progress of the troops through their respective jurisdictions by the preparation of boats or temporary bridges instead of boats, when necessary for crossing streams upon the line of march. Upon the receipt of a requisition made in accordance with such order, every Collector so called upon shall proceed in the manner prescribed by Section III of Regulation XI. 1806; and every Magistrate so called upon shall proceed in the manner prescribed in Section VI of the same Regulation; and thereupon the provisions of Sections III, IV, VI, and VII of the same Regulation, and the provisions of Regulation VI. 1825 shall apply to all Revenue and Police Officers, and to all Land-holders, Farmers, Tehsildars, and others in the possession or having the management of land, and to all other persons concerned, in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed. Provided that no carriage shall be impressed, and no provision of supplies shall be made under this Section, other than or in excess of the quantity and description of carriage and supplies now or hereafter to be authorized by the Governor-General of India in Council, according to the number and description of the troops moving.

On receipt of requisition, Collectors and Magistrates how to act.

Carriage and supplies not to be impressed and provided other than or in excess of the quantity and description authorised by the Governor-General in Council.

Collectors and Magistrates may act in like manner as provided in the preceding Section, in cases of public disturbance when troops are suddenly ordered to take the field and there is no time for applying for an order of Government.

V. Whenever it is certified in writing to any Collector or Magistrate by a Commanding Officer that a body or detachment of troops under such Officer's command has been ordered suddenly to take the field, or to proceed to some place in order to preserve the peace of the country; and that it is impossible, by the offer of double the common rates of hire and prices, to obtain the carriage or to arrange for the provision of the supplies, or to make the preparations for facilitating the movement of such body or detachment; and that there is not time to apply for the order described in Section IV of this Act; such Collector or Magistrate shall proceed in the manner prescribed in the said Section in order to the obtaining of carriage, or the provision of supplies, or the preparations for facilitating the movement aforesaid, or any or all of these objects, as the case may be: and thereupon the said provisions of the said Regulations shall apply in the same manner as is in Section IV of this Act provided.

VI. Except in the cases provided for by Sections IV and V of this Act, the provisions of Sections III, IV, VI, and VII of Regulation XI. 1806, and of Regulation VI. 1825, so far as the same relate to the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal, shall cease to have any force or effect.

Operation of certain provisions of Regulation XI. 1806 to cease except in the cases provided for in the two preceding Sections.

VII. When carriage is impressed, or supplies of provisions and other articles are provided in the manner authorized by Section IV or Section V of this Act, such carriage, provisions, and other articles shall be paid for by the Civil Officer, by or through whom the same are impressed or provided, at the full rates of hire and prices current at the time and place. And in the case of carriage, the carts, cattle, boats, boatmen, or bearers shall be paid for from the day on which they are impressed; and the pay shall be the same for days on which the carriage is stationary as for the days on which it is in motion. And where it is customary to pay back-hire, such back-hire also shall be paid at the current rate of the back-hire of the time and place. Impressed land-carriage shall never, unless when it is absolutely unavoidable, be taken or retained for a distance of more than one hundred miles beyond the jurisdiction of the Civil Officer under whose authority it is impressed, or beyond the head-quarters of the jurisdiction of the next Civil Officer empowered to impress carts under this Act, should such head-quarters be within a distance of one hundred miles, and on the line of march. Whenever land-carriage so impressed may be so retained, otherwise than by agreement, a double rate of hire shall be paid for the time during which it may be so retained.

Rates of hire to be paid for carriage impressed or supplies provided under this Act.

VIII. In all cases of dispute, the Collector of the District shall settle the amount of hire and other sums due according to the last preceding Section. And in regard to carriage of all descriptions, the Collector shall fix beforehand the greatest weight to be carried by each cart, boat, man, or beast employed; which shall in no case exceed the loads commonly so carried according to the means of conveyance. If this load is exceeded notwithstanding the remonstrance of the party aggrieved, a day's extra rate of hire, according to the current rate of the time and place, shall be paid to the party so aggrieved, for every day on which the load was in excess, by the Civil Officer concerned.

Collector to settle amount of hire, &c. in cases of dispute, and to fix the greatest weight to be carried by each cart.

Extra rate of hire in cases of excess load.

IX. When a Collector issues an order under Section IV or Section V of this Act, he shall select a proper person as the native Officer whom he is required, by Section III Regulation XI. 1806, to depute to accompany the troops through his jurisdiction. The native Officer so deputed shall be paid in no case at a rate of less than one Rupee a day, commencing on the day of his first employment, and continuing to the time of his dicharge, with such travelling allowance as may be authorized for Revenue Officers of his class. When more than one Regiment or part of a Regiment moves in a body, there shall be one such Officer deputed for each Regiment, or part of a Regiment so moving. Commencement of this Act.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

In the commencement of the year 1857, a Bill very similar to the present was introduced into the late Legislative Council by Sir J. P. Grant. Owing to the Mutiny and to the dissolution of the Native Army, as well as to the paramount necessity of impressing carts and boats for the march of English Troops all over the country, the Bill was not proceeded with.

But a reviewal of the correspondence on the subject for many years past abundantly proves the extensive prevalence of extortion, oppression, and gross abuse, under the law for the impressment of carriage in quiet times, as that law at present stands. Great complaints have been made by the Civil Officers on whom, under Regulation XI. 1806, falls the duty of procuring carriage: serious instances of hardship and inconvenience to Merchants and others have repeatedly been brought to their notice: Military Officers of high standing and experience have reprobated the system, but though repeated orders have been issued with a view to check abuses, they have failed in attaining their object; and there can be little doubt that Legislative enactment is needed to abolish a system which is not creditable to the general administration, which is not ordinarily needed, and which can only be justified by its imperative necessity at some important crisis. Like complaints have been made, for years, regarding abuses in the furnishing of supplies, though not to the same extent, probably because more persons and larger interests are affected by the impressment of carriage than by the procurement of supplies for Troops on a march.

In January 1862 the Government of India was informed by Mr. Paterson Saunders, the Cotton Commissioner, that carts laden with Cotton were constantly impressed by the servants of Government, to the manifest injury and impediment of trade. The abuse, in this particular shape, may not prevail in the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal, except, perhaps, on the Grand Trunk Road. But there is no doubt that the system by which carriage and supplies are forcibly taken for the service of troops, is open to the same objections as ever, and that the prospect of more speedy communication by Rail with other parts of the Empire, as well as the present tranquillity of the country, make the discontinuance of impressment, except on serious emergencies, a matter of even greater propriety and concern than it was previous to 1857.

The principle of the Bill is that the Military Department should be left to provide for its own wants in the open market, like Companies or individual Merchants. There will then be no checks to trade, no extortion by licensed officials, and no imposition of duties, distasteful and inconsistent with their proper functions, on the revenue and criminal authorities of the country. The Bill does away with forcible impressment, except in emergent cases, for which provision has been made by empowering the Lieutenant-Governor in some instances, and in others, even more urgent, the Collector of the District, when Troops are required to move, to put in force certain Sections of the old Regulation XI. 1806, which are otherwise suspended. In such cases of emergency, provision has been made for an adequate rate of remuneration to the men pressed into service, for their prompt and regular payment by an official accredited from the Civil and not the Military Department and responsible to the former, and for the speedy check or redress of abuses Other Sections of Regulation XI. 1806 are repealed altogether.

As regards payment of carriage, the principle followed in the Bill is that, on such emergencies, double the rate of hire should be offered to the carters, boatmen, &c., to induce them to go in the first instance. If they will not go for this offer, they may then be forced to go at the full rate current at the time and place, but not at the double rate. This latter rate was much objected to when it appeared in the original Bill, as affording an inducement to carters, &c., to hold out. But all such persons are intended to have full hire for days when the Troops are stationary, as well as for the days of march, and full back hire, instead of one-half hire, when back hire is customary. No carter, &c., is to be taken beyond the next Civil Station, or for more than 100 miles from the place of impressment, without his consent,—and if so taken on, he is then to get double hire. This is thought an improvement on the original Bill, which would have rendered a fresh impressment necessary at the first halting place in a new District, where no Civil Officer might have been at hand.

The Bill also abolishes the law which allows travellers to make requisitions upon Officers of Police for carriage, provisions, and other supplies. This law, it is believed, has long been a dead letter in most Districts, and it is in every way desirable to expunge it from the Statute Book.

Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

Coolie Labor—Assam.

From MAJOR HENRY HOPKINSON, Commissioner of Assam and Agent to the Governor General, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal,—(dated the 15th April 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to report that for the last two months past some excitement is said to have arisen among the Coolies on the Tea Plantations in the Debrooghur District in consequence of the Executive Engineer of Upper Assam having suddenly raised his rates of wages from two annas to four annas per diem, and of the unwillingness of the Tea Planters to make a corresponding increase. At the same time the Planters are exceedingly dissatisfied with the proceedings of the Executive Engineer, because they fear that, unless they have recourse to what they regard as the ruinous measure of raising wages, their Coolies will strike work and they will have to close their Factories.

2. The whole question is very fully treated of in the annexed extract, paragraphs 4 to 40, from a letter No. 37 of the 26th February, which I have received from Major Bivar, Deputy Commissioner of Luckimpore, and I will now proceed to review such of his remarks as I think should not pass without notice.

3. Major Bivar starts* with explaining how the Assamese consider it a reproach to labor and to cultivate. I believe this to be owing to the degraded position which the laborer filled in days gone by in Assam, and that the way to remove the reproach and to make labor popular and respectable is to pay it well. Such a change will not be the work of a day, but the sooner general experience recognizes the fact that to be a Tea Planter's Coolie is to be a well-to-do man, the sooner it will come. There are indications, indeed, that it is already at hand. In the course of the last two years the local labor to the Tea Planters has increased sevenfold.

* Paragraph 4.

4. I think the Estimate of available labor in paragraph 5 under the mark. The last census for Luckimpore returned the population at 94,500 souls, which should include many more than 5,000 able-bodied males. If this be really the number it is so small as to shew the cultivation of Tea cannot be carried on at Debrooghur on any considerable scale, except by imported labor, and with that the Executive Engineer does not interfere. I find, however, that up to the present time there have been only 690 Coolies imported from Bengal into Luckimpore†.

† Paragraphs 9 and 10.

5‡. There is a great difference between the present rate of wages, stated to be Rupees 4-8 a month, and the rate formerly, Rupees 2-8; but Colonel Jenkins, two years ago, shewed that the rise was not attributable to the demand for labor at the Tea Factories, but that even in such a District as Cooch Behar there had been an equal rise, still Rupees 4-8 a month are very low wages; Rice and Teak afford more than twice that rate in Burmah; Sugar more than four times in Mauritius, and Tea is said to be the best paying thing of all. According to Major Bivar Luckimpore will produce in three years' time Tea to the value of £240,000, besides seed, and with no greater extent of cultivation than at present, the present cultivation employing between 3,000 and 4,000 hands, so that the labor of each Coolie will produce Tea to the value of 600 Rupees, upon which a charge of no more than 20 per cent. would give wages of ten Rupees a month.

‡ Paragraphs 12, 13, 14, and 15.

6. In these paragraphs* Major Bivar reviews the progress making in his District by the Tea Planters on the one hand, with their cultivation, and the Executive Engineer on the other, with his roads and buildings; he then goes to shew that labor is more easily attracted to the Tea Plantations than to the Public Works Department, and that to counteract this preference the Executive Engineer has raised his rates to four annas and five annas a day,† the latter being the rate at which Major Bivar says the Government have determined to pay local labor before they sanction the employment of imported labor.

* Paragraphs 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, and 25.

† This is equivalent to Rupees 6-8 and 8-2 a month, not 7-8 and 9-6 as miscalculated by Major Bivar and the Tea Planters.

7. Hence the excitement among the working population; but holding out to them the prospect of higher wages it can scarcely be other than an excitement of a pleasurable kind, though accompanied, of course, by an impatience and uneasiness under the wages the Planters have hitherto allowed them

8. Major Bivar reports‡ that Tea cultivation in Debrooghur cannot withstand such a ruinous competition as is implied in the raising the wages of Coolies to four annas and five annas a day, and that at this rate§ Luckimpore may be endowed with barracks, bridges, and metalled roads, but will lose all the "commercial prosperity"|| for the promotion of which improvements are needed, cultivation will be arrested, and "when our Pioneers in civilization are in the expectation of reaping the fruits to which their labor fairly entitles them they will be threatened with the loss of their reward,"¶ and the resources of the District will be checked in their development by being made "subservient to the requirements of the Public Works Department."

‡ Paragraph 26.

§ Paragraphs 27 and 28.

|| See in original.

¶ Paragraph 29.

 Paragraph 31.

9. To avert the threatened calamity, Major Bivar proposes†† the introduction of the contract system for repairs of Government Buildings, all repairs to roads, and the "works of macadamization," and then he would let the Executive Engineer go as high as three annas a day; "and, with a view to afford the Department ample means for carrying out work, the importation of Coolies could be resorted to."‡‡

†† Paragraphs 32, 33, and 34.

‡‡ Paragraphs 35 and 36.

10. Major Bivar next goes on to shew§§ that the rise in wages of Coolies in the Department of Public Works will injuriously affect the interests of Government by bringing about a rise in wages in all other classes.

§§ Paragraphs 38 and 39.

11. Finally, ||||therefore, Major Bivar respectfully urges that "that an increase to the current rates of labor should not emanate from Government."

|||| Paragraph 40.

12. The observations and arguments of Major Bivar referred to in the foregoing paragraphs, 6 to 11, of this letter strike me as being, in a great degree, characterized by a want of familiarity with some of the phenomena of the relations existing between wages and capital, and owing to which he has failed to appreciate what the essential conditions are of the introduction of the cultivation of Tea into his District; by what means the cultivation can be extended; what the value of Tea cultivation is to his District, and to what extent and in what way the cultivation should be fostered and encouraged.

13. I have already had occasion to tell Major Bivar that the interests of his District and those of the Tea Planters are not identical at every point; the Tea Planter desires the utmost profits he can obtain from his cultivation, and as wages constitute his principle item of expenditure, it is his object above all things to keep down wages to the lowest rate. He already complains that wages have risen in Debrooghur from Rupees 2-8 to Rupees 4-8 a month within the last ten years, he would gladly therefore see wages again Rupees 2-8 a month, but that is not what any one having the welfare of the people at large would wish to see. It is not therefore by measures in restraint of the rise of wages that Planters should be encouraged.

14. The value of Tea cultivation in Debrooghur does not chiefly lie in the substitution of so many, Tea bushes for so much jungle; we might as well have no Tea there at all if we did not expect, from the expenditure of capital in its cultivation increased means of subsistence and comforts for the people and an influx of population attracted thereby. It is a confusion of means with the end to suppose that whatever promotes the increased growth of Tea must be desirable, and the argument for keeping a population at minimum wages and working them as slaves are nearly the same.

15. The total amount of Tea now under cultivation is 3,315 acres, and the number of Coolies employed 3,318; this number is equal to what Major Bivar has stated to be the whole available amount of labor in his District. It is certain, therefore, that cultivation can only be extended to any material extent by imported labor, and to how great an amount it will be required may be inferred when I state that three have been 20,143 acres taken up for cultivation by Planters already in the District, and it is not to be supposed that there will not be constant accessions to their number who will take up much more land. But the extension of the cultivation thus depending upon the importation of thousands of Coolies, it follows that the interference of the Executive Engineer in the local market for the few hundreds of Coolies he requires cannot have any great effect In fact, so little dependence have the Planters been accustomed to place on the local market that only two years ago they brought it to the notice of Government that they had only 200 Coolies engaged who were natives of the Debrooghur District. I now find, however, that, notwithstanding the competition of the Executive Engineer, they have not far short of 1,500 Coolies belonging to that District, or seven times as many as they had only two years ago.

16. As Tea then cannot be cultivated in the Debrooghur District to an extent which would raise it to the importance of a staple article of produce without imported labor, and as imported labor will not be attracted to Debrooghur without high wages, very high wages indeed, looking to the many disadvantages of its position in the eyes of the natives of India, it follows that the essential condition of the successful cultivation of Tea in Debrooghur is that its profits shall be able to afford high wages, wages which may be expected to reach a higher figure than the rates which the Executive Engineer has hitherto offered. If the cultivation of Tea cannot stand something better in the shape of wages than Rupees 4-5 or 5 Rupees a month, no assistance that the Government can give in the way of protection, as by stopping Public Works, will allow it more than a very dwarfed existence.

17. I am, however, sanguine that the cultivation of Tea in the Debrooghur District can afford much higher wages than have hitherto been paid As Tea Factories are now carried on there, the total charges, exclusive of an inappreciable fraction for iron pans, hoes, dhâs, and pruning knives, are simply no more than the total cost of Coolies employed, in other words the total wages paid is the total cost of manufacture; and I find that in the year 1861 certain of the Tea growers in Debrooghur employed 300 Coolies on 400 acres in the manufacture of 15,000 maunds of Tea or rather more than one-fourth of the total quantity produced in the District, the value of which, at Rupees 40 a maund on the spot before packing, and no Planter of good credit would take less than this for his Tea all round, would be Rupees 60,000; we have therefore 300 Coolies producing Tea to the value of Rupees 60,000, of which, if even so much as one-half were reserved as profits, there would remain Rupees 30,000 to be divided between 300 Coolies or Rupees 100 a man, equal to Rupees 8-5-4 a month, but to the value of the Tea leaf, I have also to add 400 maunds of China and 200 maunds of Assam Tea seed, worth at least Rupees 24,000, so that the wages of the Coolies come really to but little more than a third of the gross profits.

18. The foregoing calculation may be contested; but I will answer for it that no Planter who had a Plantation to sell would admit that my estimate of profits was excessive. It will be noticed that I have taken Plantations yielding under four maunds an acre, and a good garden in full bearing should produce as much as eight maunds an acre.

19. The Planters are not so unreasonable as to expect advantages which could not possibly co-exist; the facilities in procuring land implied the difficulties in procuring labor. The country could only furnish land because it could not provide labor, and it is to be regretted that a scanty supply has hitherto prevented the full recognition of this fact. Let it be now frankly and thoroughly admitted and acted on, and the era of real progress in Tea cultivation in Debrooghur will have commenced, and if it is the competition of the Public Works Department that brings the change about, I believe that it will be hereafter allowed that it was one of the best things the Department ever did. A rise in wages never yet injured any agricultural or industrial undertaking that had any real pith in it, and which was really congenial to the country in which it took its rise. I would ask the Tea Planters to let the Executive Engineer take his own course, and, disdaining any further reliance on local labor, to engage vigorously in promoting an efficient system of immigration and the passing of a contract law.

20. In regard to what Major Bivar says about an increase of wages affecting Government interests, I imagine that Government would not regret additional expenditure on this account, springing, as it would, from a state of affairs which promised the redemption of Upper Assam. If every able-bodied Coolie were earning his ten Rupees a month in Debrooghur it would soon become as flourishing a colony as Maulmein.

21. I do not therefore accept Major Bivar's summing up that the Government should not do any thing to increase local wages; at the same time with reference to a representation from the Tea Planters to Major Bivar, I have directed him to assure them that, under all circumstances, Lieutenant Nolan will not be permitted to give more than the necessary rate of wages, and that no Officer of Government would entice Coolies away from private persons, or employ Coolies who were otherwise than free from engagements to any body else; and I further added that the Government were as anxious to obtain their labor in the cheapest market as the Planters, and that I have been informed that the Department of Public Works would import the labor they require from Bengal as soon as they found that they could get it cheaper in that way than from local sources. I also instructed Major Bivar that if he thought Lieutenant Nolan had been paying too high for his labor that he was to let Lieutenant Nolan know what the proper rates were, and if Lieutenant Nolan could not procure Coolies himself at the rates Major Bivar fixed, and sought his assistance, he was to procure them for him. I shall also instruct Major Bivar to proceed in the same sense in the matter of giving effect to the suggestion he makes about working by contract in the Public Works Department at Debrooghur.

Extract of a letter from MAJOR H. S. BIVAR, Deputy Commissioner of Luckimpore,—(dated the 26th February 1862.)

4th. The Assamese as a class consider it a reproach to handle the hoe, and, except for their personal necessities in the work of cultivation, they avoid labor, and this feature in the character of the aboriginal population, coupled with the consideration that the settlers, the foreign element amongst the inhabitants, such as "Kamptes," "Singphos," "Dooaneeahs," "Kamjangs," "Takeeahs," "Meerees," "Abors," and "Mishmees," rarely, if ever, bring their labor into the market, reduces considerably the numbers of the bonâ fide laboring population.

5th. I am of opinion that, by giving the greatest latitude to calculation, the laboring class in Luckimpore cannot be assumed to be more than 5,000 able-bodied males, and out of this number little more than two-thirds can be said to be available.

6th. The second point for consideration "whether the labor is redundant or otherwise," and the current rate of wages, has in a measure been replied to in the first.

7th. The number of laborers, as I have demonstrated, is small, and considering the extent over which it is spread, the District of Luckimpore, covering an area of over 4,000 square miles, it is more trifling than numbers make it appear.

8th. On the South side of the District, the Sudder Division in Muttock and where the Tea Plantations which employ labor are situated, not more than 1,500 laborers could be found to supply the labor market, and in North Luckimpore 2,000 would be about the mark.

9th. The small amount of local labor is one of the drawbacks of the District, and to remedy it the Planters are obliged to import workmen Coolies from Chota Nagpore and from Lower Bengal.

10*th*. The imported laborers are obtained from the "Dangar" and "Boonooah" castes, and these people, although they reach Debrooghur in a weak miserable state, owing to the confinement and privations consequent upon a long journey by Steamer, soon pick up when once settled on the Plantations and work well.

11*th*. With respect to the rate of wages this is a subject upon which I have somewhat to say, and which carries with it some very weighty considerations.

12*th*. Formerly the normal rate of wages for labor was Rupees 2-8 a month or 5 pice a day, which over the last ten years, consequent upon advancement and prosperity which has, in great measure, been brought about by the establishment of Tea Plantations in the District, the hire of laborers up to date has increased to Rupees 4-8 for monthly wages, and 2 annas per diem for daily work.

13*th*. There are at present twenty seven Tea Plantations in the District, and there is room for more. The Planters give employment to between 3,000 and 4,000 hands, and although they are obliged to have recourse to importation, yet they have experienced no difficulty in obtaining labor available from local sources at Rupees 4-8 per mensem.

14*th*. The manufacture of Tea from 92,000lbs in 1852 has risen to 3,80,000lbs in 1861, and in three years time, with no greater extent of cultivation than at present, an outturn of not less than 3,000,000lbs of Tea, worth £240,000 sterling, will be obtained.

15*th*. In addition to the value of Tea material as seed is not insignificant produce, and with the prospects of the District as they now stand, exports over a quarter of a million sterling may be looked for shortly and it will not stop there, but if encouraged will continue to increase to what must be admitted will be a mighty trade in so remote a District as Luckimpore, the Ultimo Thule of the British Empire in the North-East Frontier.

16*th* The encouragement which is afforded to enterprise in Tea by the liberal manner in which the question of the sale of waste land and the redemption of the Land Revenue has been dealt with by the Supreme Government is most cheerful, and clearly evinces the sense of importance which is entertained by Government as to the prosperity which will be induced by promoting commercial operations.

17*th*. To assist the development of the resources of the country roads are required; something has been done, and it is in contemplation to effect much more.

18*th*. Roads to facilitate internal communication in the District are springing up in every direction. The Planters render willing aid for the execution of these works. The questions as to more important trunk lines of road throughout the Province are now under consideration, and the local administration have invited discussion on the point and have asked for the opinion of the Public in the matter.

19*th*. Every one is agreed upon the benefit which will result from the establishment of good roads, and the Planters, in the prosecution of whose business roads are especially needed, see encouragement in the action of Government in such matters.

20*th*. So far so good. Roads, the object of common interests, seem within our grasp when a difficulty, a serious one, shews itself.

21*st*. The work of carrying out extensive lines of metalled road, as a matter of course, devolves on the Government Officer in the Public Works Department. The Executive Engineer, Upper Assam, receives instructions to enter upon the task of carrying out important improvements. Pursuant to his orders he surveys the line of roads to be macadamized and makes plans for bridges; he has moreover to build barracks for the European Troops, to execute repairs to existing Public Buildings, and manifold other works to carry out, and to give effect to all the tasks which devolve on him he needs a considerable amount of labor.

22*nd*. I have demonstrated how very restricted the available local labor is, that it is insufficient for the commercial necessities of the District, and that the Planters are obliged to import Coolies for their operations. Of course the Executive Engineer has to encounter the same difficulty as the Public in general as to scarcity of labor, and he has moreover greater disadvantages than the Planters to encounter, as the local laborers prefer Plantation work, where their families can be employed in picking Tea leaf; moreover, in clearing jungle the Coolies obtain firewood "gratis," and can remain near their homes, and the consequences are that the Executive work is greatly impeded, for want of workmen, if not stopped.

23*rd*. The Executive Engineer, to remedy the disadvantages under which he labors, applies for Convict labor to carry out works and recommends importation of laborers. The Government have granted sanction to a limited extent as to the former measure, orders having been issued for Convicts in the Jail at Debrooghur to be furnished to the Public Works Department for any special work; but with respect to the latter question it has been determined that, until the offer of five* annas per diem, being Rupees 9-6 per mensem, has failed to secure local labor for the Public Works, Government will not import.

* I wrote what has come to my knowledge orally.

24*th*. I have had occasion, in my semi-monthly Report, letter No. 19 of 15th instant, in referring to the state of the feeling in the District, to bring to your notice the excitement which has risen on the question connected with the increase in the price of labor. The Executive Engineer, with a view to give effect to his duties, has already offered higher wages, is introducing four annas per diem or Rupees 7-8 per mensem as the rate for hire in his Department, but this innovation, however well intended, is a matter for serious apprehension.

25*th*. The Planters, for whose benefit, with the Public in general, works of improvement are being undertaken, view with alarm the plans taken to give effect to plans for their advantage.

26*th*. The fair prospects which now appear in the future of Luckimpore are threatened by the determination of the Executive Public Works Department, to increase the rates of hire for labor from two to five annas per diem, and, unless the Planters are prepared to enter into ruinous competition, the Excutive Engineer, with the Government purse at command, can carry off all the local labor.

27*th*. By enhancing the rate of wages the Public Works Department will build barracks, construct bridges, and metal roads; but commercial prosperity, for the promotion of which the improvements are needed, is checked by the derangement in market rate of hire for labor.

28*th*. Luckimpore is yet but a growing District, and it needs careful consideration as to its future.

29*th*. Within the last ten years the dreary waste which encumbered the country on all sides has yielded to energy and enterprise. What was formerly a howling wilderness is fast being converted, as you had occasion to remark a short time since, into a beautiful productive garden. This has not of course been brought about without large outlay of capital, and when our Pioneers in civilization are in the expectation of reaping the fruits which their labor fairly entitles them to, they are threatened with the loss of their reward.

30*th*. The question of enhancement of tne rate for labor appears to me a matter of such vital importance to the future interests of the District under my charge, that I would most earnestly solicit that the measure being carried out by the Executive Engineer should be put a stop to until the subject has been re-submitted for the consideration of Government.

31*st*. The matter as it stands appears to resolve itself to this, namely, as to whether it is expedient to allow the resources of the District to develop themselves to the extent I have pourtrayed or to place a check upon them by making them subservient to the requirements of the Public Works Department.

32*nd*. Having noticed what has occurred to me as pertaining to the questions which present themselves in connection with the rates of labor, it will not, I think, be out of place to offer a remark as to the requirements of the Public Works Department for labor, and to venture a suggestion to remedy the disability which exists

33*rd*. Should my proposal to put a stop to the action of the Executive Engineer in disturbing the value of labor meet with approval, I would recommend that the contract system for repairs of Government Buildings and all ordinary Public Works, as enjoined by the Chief Engineer of Bengal in his Despatch, dated 22nd January 1862, published in the Supplement of the Gazette No. 4, page 17, should be strictly adhered to.

34*th*. I cannot say to what extent Ensign Nolan, now Executive Engineer, Upper Assam, may have recourse to the "Contract System;" but I know that Colonel Reid when he filled the office at Debrooghur had much of his work done by contract, which, on the whole, I think, I am right in assuming, answered well. All repairs to roads, and even the work of macadamization, might, I conceive, be easily carried out by contracts, and brick making for bridges or roads could in like manner be provided for.

35*th*. For work in the Station of Debrooghur for skilled labor the Executive Engineer might give a slight increase as far as three annas per diem for daily wages, or Rupees 5-8 per mensem for hire by the month; but for all other labor he should not exceed the current rates, and, with a view to afford the Department ample means for carrying out work, the importation of Coolies, which I believe was contemplated, could be resorted to.

36*th*. The Planters contrive to import labor and to make it pay, and there is no reason why the Executive Department should not do likewise, and with greater facility, as it might command the co-operation of Government Officials who are located in the Districts from whence Coolies are imported.

37*th*. Apart from the question of disadvantages in a commercial point of view, which would result from disturbing the labor market, the derangement which would arise from exorbitant increase in the wages for labor would materially affect the Government interests.

38*th*. Once the value of labor assumed so high a figure as five annas per diem, or Rupees 9-6 per mensem, all Public servants who belong to the laboring class would hold out for higher pay, Jail Burkandauzes, Police Burkandauzes, Office Teklahs, Chupprassies, Dâk Peons, Dâk Runners, Boatmen, and the like, who now work for wages of from 4 to 5 Rupees per mensem, would not be obtainable for double that sum. The evil, moreover, would not rest here, it would make the native soldiery, who receive, the regular Sepoy Rupees 6-8, and the Militia man Rupees 5-4, feel dissatisfied, and servants and menials who belong to the Military Train, Mahouts, Grass-cutters, Bullock-drivers, Classies, Cooks, Mussalchees, Hospital Bearers, and Sweepers, would expect an increase to their wages.

39*th*. I would remark further that an increase in the value of labor affects all classes of the tax-paying community who need labor or servants, and hence their earnings become indirectly taxed, and with respect to persons who have fixed incomes they must, to a certain extent, be impoverished by a sudden rise in the rate of hire for work.

40*th*. For reasons I have ventured to explain I would respectfully beg to urge that an increase to the current rates for labor should not emanate from Government.

From LIEUTENANT-COLONEL J. P. BEADLE, Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal, in the Public Works Department, to the Officiating Commissioner of Assam,—(dated Fort William, the 15th May 1862.)

YOUR predecessor's letter No. 43, dated the 15th April last, referring to the excitement which is said to have arisen amongst the laborers on the Tea Plantations in Upper Assam at the action taken by the Public Works Department in raising the wages of Coolies employed on the Government Works, explaining his views on the labor question, and stating the instructions he has issued to the Deputy Commissioner of the Luckimpore District, has been placed before the Lieutenant-Governor, who agrees generally in the views expressed by Major Hopkinson, and in the instructions given by him to Major Bivar.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that, considering the small number of laborers required by the Public Works Department in Upper Assam, as compared with the probable number of the able-bodied male laboring population on the one hand, and the demand for labor in the Plantations on the other, the rate of wages lately offered by the Executive Engineer is not so high as to have done, or to be likely to do, any injury to private interests.

3. So far as the Public Works Department is concerned the Government is certainly as much interested as any private person in the cheapness of labor; but the Lieutenant-Governor cannot consent to restrict the progress of works of public utility, especially of roads and other works of a re-productive character, for fear of raising wages. The result which has followed the introduction of capital into Bengal must inevitably attend the introduction of capital into Assam, and wages must rise, independent altogether of the action of Government, until the investment of further capital becomes for a time unprofitable, or until the proportion between the number of the laboring population, and the funds devoted to the purchase of labor, adjusts itself.

4. At the same time the Lieutenant-Governor admits that the Government having, so to speak, an unlimited command of capital, and being practically far less dependent on considerations of profit and loss than the private capitalist, is bound to be very careful not to take the lead in raising wages, or to offer (except on an extreme emergency) inducements to laborers to leave their ordinary employment by the expectation of obtaining a higher remuneration for their labor than the ordinary market rate.

5. The Government is also bound, the Lieutenant-Governor conceives, no less by a view to public economy, than by a due regard to the private interests, both of the Assam capitalists and of those who seek, or desire, a better market for their labor, to facilitate the introduction of laborers into Assam from other parts of India where labor is cheaper; and not only to encourage immigration through private agency, but to take direct action in the matter so far as the requirements of the Public Service demand it. This, I am to state, has already been done to a certain extent, and the Lieutenant-Governor is quite prepared to carry the measure further if necessary.

A copy of the correspondence will be forwarded to the Superintending Engineer of Assam for his information: It will also be published in the Gazette.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 27th May 1862.

THE following Bill, which it is intended to introduce into the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, is, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it, published for general information by order of the Lieutenant-Governor:—

A Bill to amend the law regarding the provision of carriage and supplies for Troops and Travellers, and to punish unlawful impressment.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the habitual impressment by the Civil Power, under the Regulations in force in the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal, of carts, cattle, boats, boatmen, and bearers, in order to facilitate the passage of troops through those Provinces, is unnecessary and oppressive; and whereas such impressment is always liable to abuse, and should never be resorted to except on occasions of emergency; and whereas it is unnecessary to authorize travellers to require the assistance of Officers of Police in procuring means of transport, or supplies of provisions or of other articles during their journeys; It is enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed and modified.

I. Sections II and VIII, and Clause 7 Section IX of Regulation XI. 1806 are repealed so far as the same relate to the provinces subject to the Government of Bengal. Sections III, IV, VI, and VII of the said Regulation, and Regulation VI. 1825, so far as they relate to the said provinces, are modified, and their operation restricted, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Collectors, Magistrates, &c., prohibited from impressing all means of transport, except as hereinafter provided.

II. Except as hereinafter provided, all Collectors and Magistrates, and other Civil Officers, are prohibited from impressing any carts, cattle, boats, boatmen, bearers, coolies, or any other means of transport for any purpose whatsoever; anything in Regulation XI. 1806, or Regulation VI. 1825 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Punishment of Revenue or Police Officers for impressing means of transport or workmen, and for enforcing delivery of provisions, &c. to travellers.

III. Whoever, being an Officer of Revenue or Police, impresses or attempts to impress any cart, cattle, boat, boatman, bearer, cooly, or other means of transport, contrary to the provisions of this Act, or otherwise without authority of law; or impresses or attempts to impress any workman, laborer, or cooly, without authority of law; or enforces or attempts to enforce the delivery of supplies of provisions or other articles to travellers or others, without authority of law—shall be liable, besides dismissal from office, to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two months, or to both.

In cases of emergency, Military Officers in command of troops may, by an order, be authorized to require Collectors and Magistrates to aid in procuring carriage, supplies, &c.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, by an order stating that a case of emergency has arisen, and that it is impossible, by the offer of double the common rates of hire and prices, to obtain the carriage, and to arrange for the provision of supplies required to meet the emergency, to authorize any Military Officer commanding a body or detachment of troops to call upon the Collectors and the Magistrates of Districts or places from, through, or near to which such troops are ordered to march, to aid in procuring all necessary carriage whether by land or water, and all necessary supplies, as well as to facilitate the progress of the troops through their respective jurisdictions by the preparation of boats or temporary bridges instead of boats, when necessary for crossing streams upon the line of march. Upon the receipt of a requisition made in accordance with such order, every Collector so called upon shall proceed in the manner prescribed by Section III of Regulation XI. 1806; and every Magistrate so called upon shall proceed in the manner prescribed in Section VI of the same Regulation; and thereupon the provisions of Sections III, IV, VI, and VII of the same Regulation, and the provisions of Regulation VI. 1825 shall apply to all Revenue and Police Officers, and to all Land-holders, Farmers, Tehsildars, and others in the possession or having the management of land, and to all other persons concerned, in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed. Provided that no carriage shall be impressed, and no provision of supplies shall be made under this Section, other than or in excess of the quantity and description of carriage and supplies now or hereafter to be authorized by the Governor-General of India in Council, according to the number and description of the troops moving.

On receipt of requisition, Collectors and Magistrates how to act.

Carriage and supplies not to be impressed and provided other than or in excess of the quantity and description authorised by the Governor-General in Council.

V. Whenever it is certified in writing to any Collector or Magistrate by a Commanding Officer that a body or detachment of troops under such Officer's command has been ordered suddenly to take the field, or to proceed to some place in order to preserve the peace of the country; and that it is impossible, by the offer of double the common rates of hire and prices, to obtain the carriage or to arrange for the provision of the supplies, or to make the preparations for facilitating the movement of such body or detachment; and that there is not time to apply for the order described in Section IV of this Act; such Collector or Magistrate shall proceed in the manner prescribed in the said Section in order to the obtaining of carriage, or the provision of supplies, or the preparations for facilitating the movement aforesaid, or any or all of these objects, as the case may be: and thereupon the said provisions of the said Regulations shall apply in the same manner as is in Section IV of this Act provided.

Collectors and Magistrates may act in like manner as provided in the preceding Section, in cases of public disturbance when troops are suddenly ordered to take the field and there is no time for applying for an order of Government.

VI. Except in the cases provided for by Sections IV and V of this Act, the provisions of Sections III, IV, VI, and VII of Regulation XI. 1806, and of Regulation VI. 1825, so far as the same relate to the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal, shall cease to have any force or effect.

Operation of certain provisions of Regulation XI. 1806 to cease except in the cases provided for in the two preceding Sections.

VII. When carriage is impressed, or supplies of provisions and other articles are provided in the manner authorized by Section IV or Section V of this Act, such carriage, provisions, and other articles shall be paid for by the Civil Officer, by or through whom the same are impressed or provided, at the full rates of hire and prices current at the time and place. And in the case of carriage, the carts, cattle, boats, boatmen, or bearers shall be paid for from the day on which they are impressed; and the pay shall be the same for days on which the carriage is stationary as for the days on which it is in motion. And where it is customary to pay back-hire, such back-hire also shall be paid at the current rate of the back-hire of the time and place. Impressed land-carriage shall never, unless when it is absolutely unavoidable, be taken or retained for a distance of more than one hundred miles beyond the jurisdiction of the Civil Officer under whose authority it is impressed, or beyond the head-quarters of the jurisdiction of the next Civil Officer empowered to impress carts under this Act, should such head-quarters be within a distance of one hundred miles, and on the line of march. Whenever land-carriage so impressed may be so retained, otherwise than by agreement, a double rate of hire shall be paid for the time during which it may be so retained.

Rates of hire to be paid for carriage impressed or supplies provided under this Act.

VIII. In all cases of dispute, the Collector of the District shall settle the amount of hire and other sums due according to the last preceding Section. And in regard to carriage of all descriptions, the Collector shall fix beforehand the greatest weight to be carried by each cart, boat, man, or beast employed; which shall in no case exceed the loads commonly so carried according to the means of conveyance. If this load is exceeded notwithstanding the remonstrance of the party aggrieved, a day's extra rate of hire, according to the current rate of the time and place, shall be paid to the party so aggrieved, for every day on which the load was in excess, by the Civil Officer concerned.

Collector to settle amount of hire, &c. in cases of dispute, and to fix the greatest weight to be carried by each cart.

Extra rate of hire in cases of excess load.

IX. When a Collector issues an order under Section IV or Section V of this Act, he shall select a proper person as the native Officer whom he is required, by Section III Regulation XI. 1806, to depute to accompany the troops through his jurisdiction. The native Officer so deputed shall be paid in no case at a rate of less than one Rupee a day, commencing on the day of his first employment, and continuing to the time of his dicharge, with such travelling allowance as may be authorized for Revenue Officers of his class. When more than one Regiment or part of a Regiment moves in a body, there shall be one such Officer deputed for each Regiment, or part of a Regiment so moving. It shall be a part of the duty of such Officer to make such payments as he may be authorized by the Collector to make; to take care that the loads fixed by the Collector are in no case exceeded; and to hear all complaints made by the men impressed for carriage, and to redress them, when well founded, if he can, or otherwise to report them to the Military Officer in charge of the baggage, or to the Officer commanding the troops, and finally, if not then redressed, to the Collector.

Collectors to depute proper native Officers to accompany the troops through their Districts.

X. In the term "Collector" in this Act is included the Chief Revenue or fiscal Officer in charge of any District or any Division of a District; and in the term "Magistrate" is included any Officer exercising the full powers of a Magistrate.

Interpretation. "Collector." "Magistrate."

XI. This Act shall have effect on and from the day of 1863.

Commencement of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

IN the commencement of the year 1857, a Bill very similar to the present was introduced into the late Legislative Council by Sir J. P. Grant. Owing to the Mutiny and to the dissolution of the Native Army, as well as to the paramount necessity of impressing carts and boats for the march of English Troops all over the country, the Bill was not proceeded with.

But a reviewal of the correspondence on the subject for many years past abundantly proves the extensive prevalence of extortion, oppression, and gross abuse, under the law for the impressment of carriage in quiet times, as that law at present stands. Great complaints have been made by the Civil Officers on whom, under Regulation XI. 1806, falls the duty of procuring carriage: serious instances of hardship and inconvenience to Merchants and others have repeatedly been brought to their notice: Military Officers of high standing and experience have reprobated the system, but though repeated orders have been issued with a view to check abuses, they have failed in attaining their object; and there can be little doubt that Legislative enactment is needed to abolish a system which is not creditable to the general administration, which is not ordinarily needed, and which can only be justified by its imperative necessity at some important crisis. Like complaints have been made, for years, regarding abuses in the furnishing of supplies, though not to the same extent, probably because more persons and larger interests are affected by the impressment of carriage than by the procurement of supplies for Troops on a march.

In January 1862 the Government of India was informed by Mr. Paterson Saunders, the Cotton Commissioner, that carts laden with Cotton were constantly impressed by the servants of Government, to the manifest injury and impediment of trade. The abuse, in this particular shape, may not prevail in the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal, except, perhaps, on the Grand Trunk Road. But there is no doubt that the system by which carriage and supplies are forcibly taken for the service of troops, is open to the same objections as ever, and that the prospect of more speedy communication by Rail with other parts of the Empire, as well as the present tranquillity of the country, make the discontinuance of impressment, except on serious emergencies, a matter of even greater propriety and concern than it was previous to 1857.

The principle of the Bill is that the Military Department should be left to provide for its own wants in the open market, like Companies or individual Merchants. There will then be no checks to trade, no extortion by licensed officials, and no imposition of duties, distasteful and inconsistent with their proper functions, on the revenue and criminal authorities of the country. The Bill does away with forcible impressment, except in emergent cases, for which provision has been made by empowering the Lieutenant-Governor in some instances, and in others, even more urgent, the Collector of the District, when Troops are required to move, to put in force certain Sections of the old Regulation XI. 1806, which are otherwise suspended. In such cases of emergency, provision has been made for an adequate rate of remuneration to the men pressed into service, for their prompt and regular payment by an official accredited from the Civil and not the Military Department and responsible to the former, and for the speedy check or redress of abuses Other Sections of Regulation XI. 1806 are repealed altogether.

As regards payment of carriage, the principle followed in the Bill is that, on such emergencies, double the rate of hire should be offered to the carters, boatmen, &c., to induce them to go in the first instance. If they will not go for this offer, they may then be forced to go at the full rate current at the time and place, but not at the double rate. This latter rate was much objected to when it appeared in the original Bill, as affording an inducement to carters, &c., to hold out. But all such persons are intended to have full hire for days when the Troops are stationary, as well as for the days of march and full back hire, instead of one-half hire, when back hire is customary. No carter, &c., is to be taken beyond the next Civil Station, or for more than 100 miles from the place of impressment, without his consent,—and if so taken on, he is then to get double hire. This is thought an improvement on the original Bill, which would have rendered a fresh impressment necessary at the first halting place in a new District, where no Civil Officer might have been at hand.

The Bill also abolishes the law which allows travellers to make requisitions upon Officers of Police for carriage, provisions, and other supplies. This law, it is believed, has long been a dead letter in most Districts, and it is in every way desirable to expunge it from the Statute Book.

Fort William, the 2nd June 1862.

THE following Bill, which it is intended to introduce into the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, is, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it, published for general information by order of the Lieutenant-Governor:—

A Bill to abate and prevent nuisances arising from the smoke of Furnaces in the town and neighbourhood of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abate and prevent nuisances arising from the smoke of Furnaces in the town and neighbourhood of Calcutta; It is enacted as follows:—

Furnaces in the town and neighbourhood of Calcutta to consume their own smoke.

I. From and after the 1st day of January 1865, every Furnace employed or to be employed anywhere within a radius of five miles of the chief Post Office of the Town of Calcutta, in the working of Engines by steam, and every Furnace employed or to be employed within the said radius in any mill, factory, printing-house, screw-house, dye-house, iron foundry, glass-house, distillery, brew-house, sugar refinery, bake-house, gas works, water works, or other buildings within the above limits (although a Steam Engine be not used or employed therein), shall, in all cases, be constructed or altered so as to consume or burn the smoke arising from such Furnace. And if any person after the first day of January 1865, and within the radius aforesaid, shall use any such Furnace which shall not be constructed so as to consume or burn its own smoke, or shall so negligently use any such Furnace as that the smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt, or shall not use the best practicable means for preventing or counteracting such smoke, every person so offending, being the owner or occupier of the premises, or being a Foreman or other person employed by such owner or occupier, shall, upon a summary conviction for such offence before any Magistrate, forfeit and pay a sum of not more than fifty Rupees nor less than twenty Rupees, and upon a second conviction for such offence, the sum of one hundred Rupees, and, for each subsequent conviction, a sum double the amount of the penalty imposed for the last preceding conviction.

Interpretation of the term "consume or burn the smoke."

II. Provided always that the words "consume or burn the smoke" as used in this Act shall not be held to mean "consume or burn every particle of the smoke," and that the Magistrate before whom any person shall be summoned may remit the penalties enacted by this Act if he shall be satisfied that such person has so constructed or altered his Furnace as to consume or burn as far as possible all the smoke arising from such Furance, and has carefully attended to the same, and consumed or burned, as far as possible, the smoke arising from such Furnace.

Police Officer may be empowered to enter and inspect Furnaces.

III. If the owner or occupier of any premises to which the provisions of this Act shall apply, shall refuse to to allow his premises to be inspected by a person duly authorized by a Magistrate for that purpose, it shall be lawful for any Police Officer authorized by the order in writing of a Magistrate, with or without any Assistants, to enter into and upon any building or premises within the radius aforesaid in which any Furnace may be, and to examine into the construction of such Furnace; and any person obstructing any such Police Officer or his Assistants in the execution of any such warrant or order, shall, upon a summary conviction for such offence before any Magistrate, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

No information to be laid except by authority of Magistrate.

IV. Provided always that no information shall be laid against any person for the recovery of any penalty under this Act, except by the authority of a Magistrate.

Interpretation of the word "Magistrate."

V. The word "Magistrate" in this Act, as regards cases under this Act, arising within the local limits of the Town of Calcutta, shall mean any salaried Police Magistrate of the said Town, and as regards cases arising without the said Town shall mean any Officer having the full powers of a Magistrate.

Words in the singular number to comprise words in the plural.

VI. Words used in the singular number in this Act shall be held to comprise the plural, and words used in the plural number to comprise the singular.

Recovery of penalties.

VII. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered, if for offences not committed within the local limits of the Town of Calcutta, in the manner prescribed for the recover of penalties by Act II of 1839, and if for offences committed within those limits, in the manner prescribed for the recovery of penalties by any Act for the Conservancy of the Town of Calcutta, in force for the time being.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE increase of smoke from furnaces now used in Calcutta, and the nuisances arising therefrom, have been brought to the notice of Government both by the Municipal Commissioners and by the Commissioner of Police. Any person who looks round on Calcutta from any elevated place during the working hours of the day, may easily satisfy himself of the existence of this nuisance, which is one, indeed, requiring no further proof. It is very desirable that means should be taken, as early as practicable, to abate this nuisance, and also to prevent its spread; for it is highly probable, not to say certain, that the number of furnaces emitting large volumes of smoke will increase rapidly in this neighbourhood.

In this view, a Bill has been drafted on the model of the English Act, viz., the XVI and XVII Vic., chap. 128. Some provisions not applicable to this City have been omitted; and a general provision of the English Act, including all trades which might cause offensive and noxious effluvia, has been discarded from this Bill. Offensive trades can be, and are met in the Conservancy Bills now before the Council, which will probably ere long become law.

It is proposed that this Bill for the consumption of smoke shall not come into operation before the year 1865, an interval which will give ample time to all owners of furnaces now existing, and to persons intending to construct new furnaces, to enable them to comply with the requirements of the proposed Law.

Suitable fines are proposed for the infringement of the provisions of the Bill; and it is believed that the Bill, if it becomes law, will operate beneficially here, as it has been found to work well in England.

Government of Bengal.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 2nd June 1862.

THE following Bill, which it is intended to introduce into the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, is, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it, published for general information by order of the Lieutenant-Governor:—

A Bill to abate and prevent nuisances arising from the smoke of Furnaces in the town and neighbourhood of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abate and prevent nuisances arising from the smoke of Furnaces in the town and neighbourhood of Calcutta; It is enacted as follows:—

Furnaces in the town and neighbourhood of Calcutta to consume their own smoke.

I. From and after the 1st day of January 1865, every Furnace employed or to be employed anywhere within a radius of five miles of the chief Post Office of the Town of Calcutta, in the working of Engines by steam, and every Furnace employed or to be employed within the said radius in any mill, factory, printing-house, screw-house, dye-house, iron foundry, glass-house, distillery, brew-house, sugar refinery, bake-house, gas works, water works, or other buildings within the above limits (although a Steam Engine be not used or employed therein), shall, in all cases, be constructed or altered so as to consume or burn the smoke arising from such Furnace. And if any person after the first day of January 1865, and within the radius aforesaid, shall use any such Furnace which shall not be constructed so as to consume or burn its own smoke, or shall so negligently use any such Furnace as that the smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt, or shall not use the best practicable means for preventing or counteracting such smoke, every person so offending, being the owner or occupier of the premises, or being a Foreman or other person employed by such owner or occupier, shall, upon a summary conviction for such offence before any Magistrate, forfeit and pay a sum of not more than fifty Rupees nor less than twenty Rupees, and upon a second conviction for such offence, the sum of one hundred Rupees, and, for each subsequent conviction, a sum double the amount of the penalty imposed for the last preceding conviction.

Interpretation of the term "consume or burn the smoke."

II. Provided always that the words "consume or burn the smoke" as used in this Act shall not be held to mean "consume or burn every particle of the smoke," and that the Magistrate before whom any person shall be summoned may remit the penalties enacted by this Act if he shall be satisfied that such person has so constructed or altered his Furnace as to consume or burn as far as possible all the smoke arising from such Furnace, and has carefully attended to the same, and consumed or burned, as far as possible, the smoke arising from such Furnace.

Police Officer may be empowered to enter and inspect Furnaces.

III. If the owner or occupier of any premises to which the provisions of this Act shall apply, shall refuse to to allow his premises to be inspected by a person duly authorized by a Magistrate for that purpose, it shall be lawful for any Police Officer authorized by the order in writing of a Magistrate, with or without any Assistants, to enter into and upon any building or premises within the radius aforesaid in which any Furnace may be, and to examine into the construction of such Furnace; and any person obstructing any such Police Officer or his Assistants in the execution of any such warrant or order, shall, upon a summary conviction for such offence before any Magistrate, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

No information to be laid except by authority of Magistrate.

IV. Provided always that no information shall be laid against any person for the recovery of any penalty under this Act, except by the authority of a Magistrate.

Interpretation of the word "Magistrate."

V. The word "Magistrate" in this Act, as regards cases under this Act, arising within the local limits of the Town of Calcutta, shall mean any salaried Police Magistrate of the said Town, and as regards cases arising without the said Town shall mean any Officer having the full powers of a Magistrate.

VI. Words used in the singular number in this Act shall be held to comprise the plural, and words used in the plural number to comprise the singular.

Words in the singular number to comprise words in the plural.

VII. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered, if for offences not committed within the local limits of the Town of Calcutta, in the manner prescribed for the recover of penalties by Act II of 1839, and if for offences committed within those limits, in the manner prescribed for the recovery of penalties by any Act for the Conservancy of the Town of Calcutta, in force for the time being.

Recovery of penalties.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE increase of smoke from furnaces now used in Calcutta, and the nuisances arising therefrom, have been brought to the notice of Government both by the Municipal Commissioners and by the Commissioner of Police. Any person who looks round on Calcutta from any elevated place during the working hours of the day, may easily satisfy himself of the existence of this nuisance, which is one, indeed, requiring no further proof. It is very desirable that means should be taken, as early as practicable, to abate this nuisance, and also to prevent its spread; for it is highly probable, not to say certain, that the number of furnaces emitting large volumes of smoke will increase rapidly in this neighbourhood.

In this view, a Bill has been drafted on the model of the English Act, viz., the XVI and XVII Vic., chap. 128. Some provisions not applicable to this City have been omitted; and a general provision of the English Act, including all trades which might cause offensive and noxious effluvia, has been discarded from this Bill. Offensive trades can be, and are met in the Conservancy Bills now before the Council, which will probably ere long become law.

It is proposed that this Bill for the consumption of smoke shall not come into operation before the year 1865, an interval which will give ample time to all owners of furnaces now existing, and to persons intending to construct new furnaces, to enable them to comply with the requirements of the proposed Law.

Suitable fines are proposed for the infringement of the provisions of the Bill; and it is believed that the Bill, if it becomes law, will operate beneficially here, as it has been found to work well in England.

Sir,—I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 125 of the 29th January last, in which you raise the following questions regarding cases where the preparatory leave granted to Officers who obtain leave to proceed to Europe on Medical Certificate is exceeded :—

I. Is the Officer entitled to any and what pay for the time intervening between the expiry of his preparatory leave and the date of embarkation?

II. Has the Officer the option, if so disposed, of reckoning his sick leave from date of expiry of preparatory leave, instead of from date of embarkation?

2nd.—I am desired to inform you, in reply to the first question, that, under the circumstances supposed, an Officer is entitled to no pay, and, with reference to the second, that there is no option, but that every special case of this description might be considered on its merits.

Sir,—It has been brought to the notice of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, that there prevails a very objectionable practice

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 6th June 1862.

No. 601 of 1862.—Hitherto Family Remittances to the Cape of Good Hope by Officers and Soldiers of British Regiments serving in India have been sent by the Governments of the several Presidencies in India to the Colonial Government at the Cape.

2. It is more convenient, however, to the Colonial Government that the Remittances to the payees should be disbursed through the Commissariat at the Cape, which is in account with the War Office.

3. In consequence also of the more regular communication between England and the Cape than between that Colony and India, the Family Remittances if sent hence to the War Office will be disbursed more expeditiously and regularly under its instructions, by the Commissariat at the Cape, than if sent direct to the Colony as hitherto.

4. Accordingly, from the 1st July next inclusive, all Family Remittances made from India to the Cape of Good Hope by Officers and Soldiers of Her Majesty's British Forces are to be included, equally with those for payment in England, in the monthly Abstracts of Remittances which are transmitted from the several Presidencies to the War Office in England, leaving it to the War Department to give the necessary directions to the Commissariat Officer at the Cape for the payment of the sums so remitted.

5. In order that the War Department may be able to separate the Remittances for the Cape from those for England, Regimental Pay Masters are clearly to distinguish the former by placing the words "Remittance for the Cape" against each sum in the Column for Remarks in their Statement of Family Remittances. War Office Form, No. 327.

6. For the Remittances for England, which are included in that Statement, separate Remittance Vouchers will, as hitherto, be forwarded to the Regimental Agents, but Pay Masters must distinctly understand that no Vouchers (War Office Form, No. 326,) are to be prepared for the Cape Remittances, and they should append the following Declaration to the Return No. 327, in lieu of that which is printed at foot thereof:—

"We do hereby certify that the above Statement contains the correct particulars of all the sums which have been lodged by Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and private men during the month of 186 , for the purpose of being remitted to England, and that the separate Remittance Vouchers as prescribed in Articles 231, 232, and 234 of the War Office explanatory Directions and Circular, No. 452, dated 2nd August 1859, (except as regard remittances for payment at the Cape of Good Hope under special and direct authority from the War Office), have been duly transmitted to the Regimental Agent.

Dated at } Officer Comdg. } Regiment
this day of 186 . } Pay Master } of."

7. The Declaration, it will be observed, is identical with that in the printed Form, save that the parenthesis in italics will have to be interpolated in the printed Form in red ink.

No. 613 of 1862.—His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, No. 494, dated 31st December 1861, for general information :—

INDIA OFFICE,

London, 31*st December* 1861.

MILITARY.

No. 494.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,

Para. 1.—I HAVE received and considered in Council your Military Letter, No. 252, dated 17th October 1861, transmitting an application from Major Wyld, of the Staff Corps, to be permitted to leave that Corps.

2. Major Wyld's reason for requesting that the General Order transferring him to the Staff Corps should be cancelled, is stated to be, that your General Order of 10th September last, No. 799, publishing my Despatch, No. 296 of the 25th July, has materially altered the conditions, as previously understood in India, under which an Officer of Her Majesty's Indian Army was permitted to enter the Staff Corps, it now appearing that the Officers of that Corps will be denied the privileges as to retirement on pension of the rank attained after twenty-two years' service, conferred in the Government Regulation of 1796.

3. As the formation of Staff Corps is not to be considered complete until after the 22nd October 1861, you would have been perfectly justified in cancelling Major Wyld's appointment to that Corps at his request, subject to my approval. You have, however, considered it necessary (the appointment and consequent promotion having been reported for my approval) to transmit the application for my consideration and orders.

4. You observe, in paragraph 5, that whatever may have been this Officer's intention as to availing himself of the privileges of the Regulations of 1796, there is reason to believe that many Officers have joined the Staff Corps on the understanding that this privilege would be available to them, and, you add, they were fully justified in that expectation.

5. I admit that the words of the 9th paragraph of the 3rd Clause of the Royal (Staff Corps) Warrant are susceptible of the erroneous interpretation which some Officers have thus placed upon it.

6. The intentions of Her Majesty's Government upon this point, however, were clearly explained in my Despatch, No. 296, dated 25th July last.

7. It was there stated (paragraph 3) that Officers of the Indian Army, who might, at the time of joining the Staff Corps, have acquired, under the Regulations of 1796, the right of retiring on the pension of their rank, would be allowed to retire on the pension of the rank which they then held, whenever they might subsequently retire. It was added, that "the right of retiring on the pension of the rank they hold at the "date of joining the Staff Corps will pre-"serve to local Officers, who have been fortunate "in their promotion, the benefit of the rate of "pension they may have acquired by their pre-"vious service in the Army."

8. I pointed out, on the other hand, in paragraph 6, the undue advantage that would be given to Officers of the Staff Corps, if it were conceded that they should be entitled to claim the pension according to rank, in respect of rank obtained in the Staff Corps.

9. By the publication of this Despatch, with your General Order, No. 799, on the 10th September, the Officers of the Army, who may have elected to join the Staff Corps under an erroneous impression upon this point, will have had time to re-consider the subject, and to make application to have their appointments cancelled before the formation of the Corps.

10. The arrangements for the amalgamation of the British and Indian Armies and for the special provision of a body of Officers "for service in India" were not made without careful consideration by Her Majesty's Government.

11. They kept in view the double object of maintaining for the Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Forces, who remained in that service, the advantages they had enjoyed under its established Regulations, and at the same time they offered inducements to experienced and efficient Officers to pass into Corps organized for special service in that country, by holding out to them certain advantages that were made to attend the transfer and continuance of their services to and with those Corps.

12. With this view, promotion was given to many Officers on entering these Corps. Further promotion was secured to them in a manner in which it had never been secured to them before, and the scale and conditions of pension, according to the Rules of 1836 (considered, when granted, as a great boon to the Indian Armies,) were adopted and introduced among the Regulations of the Staff Corps. Their joining these Corps was optional on their part.

13. The effect of the further concession which you now recommend would be to give to Officers of the Indian Army, who may join the Staff Corps, in addition to the advantages already secured to them by the Staff Corps Warrant, which are many and great, the further privilege of claiming the retiring pension of Major or a Lieutenant-Colonel, in all cases, two (2) years sooner than other Officers of the Staff Corps could claim them, two (2) years sooner than they themselves could have claimed them under the Regulations of 1836, or except upon rare and uncertain contingencies, under those of 1796.

14. This privilege, if conceded at all, must be allowed to every Officer of the Indian Army, who joins the Staff Corps, and I see no reason for assuming, as stated in paragraph 15 of your Despatch, that there will be but few Officers who would desire to avail themselves of this very important privilege.

15. In the 13th paragraph of your Despatch, you observe that it has come to your knowledge that several Officers have arrested their applications to join the Staff Corps since the publication of my Despatch, No. 296, and you add, it may be assumed, that others who have actually joined the Corps have done so under the belief that under the terms of the Royal Warrant they would in the course of three or four years acquire the right to retire on the pension of Major or Lieutenant-Colonel.

16. I regret that there should have been any ground for misapprehension on this point, but I see no cause for altering the Resolution upon the subject, which has already been communicated to you.

17. The object of those Officers, who, as you state, have arrested their applications to join, seems to have been rather to retire as soon as possible than to serve in India, but they have no ground for complaint. They have had the opportunity of choosing, out of three courses, that which may appear best calculated to promote those views; by remaining in the local service, and availing themselves of the Regulations of 1796; by remaining in that service, and retiring under the Regulations of 1836; or by joining the Staff Corps, and retiring eventually under the latter Rules.

18. Her Majesty's Government consider it only right to place the Officers who may, as you justly assume some may, have joined under a mistaken view of the meaning of the 9th paragraph of the 3rd Clause of the Royal Warrant, in an equally favourable position.

19. Major Wyld's request, that his appointment to the Staff Corps and consequent promotion may be cancelled, may be complied with.

20. You are authorized also to cancel the appointments to the Staff Corps of all Officers who may make application to you for this purpose, stating that they have been misled on this point.

I have, &c.,

(Sd.) CHARLES WOOD.

A further reference on this subject having been transmitted Home, the Governor-General in Council has now received the final orders of Her Majesty's Government, who have determined that the decision announced in Government General Order, No. 799 of the 10th September 1861, must be upheld.

The appointments to the Staff Corps of all Officers who may make application to withdraw, stating that they have been misled as regards the application of the retiring Regulations of 1796, to that Corps will be cancelled; but it is to be clearly understood that on this plea alone can appointments once made to the Staff Corps be annulled.

All applications from Officers now in India to withdraw from the Staff Corps under this order must be sent in to the Adjutant-General's Office of their respective Presidencies by the 1st August next.

Abolition of Transit Duty on Cotton in Native States in Bundelkund.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Camp Gwalior,—(dated Camp Duttia, the 21th February 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copies of letters received from the following Chiefs of Bundelkund abolishing all Transit Duty on Cotton in their States. I have placed them in the order in which the letters are dated.

1. Nawab of Baonee, dated 27th Jumadoos Sani, Hijree 1278, A. D. 30th December 1861.
2. Jagheerdar of Paharee, dated 2nd Poos Soodhi, Sumbut 1918, or 2nd January 1862.
3. Rajah of Beronda, dated 10th Magh Soodhi, Sumbut 1918, or 9th February 1862.
4. Rais of Kotee, dated 14th Magh Soodhi, or 13th February 1862.
5. Jagirdar of Gourihat, dated 15th Magh Soodhi, or 14th February 1862.

2. The Nawab of Baonee was the first under this Agency to abolish the Duty, and for this, as well as his good conduct generally in matters relating to Transit Duties, I think it would be a merited and beneficial notice of the matter were you to send me a letter for him expressing your satisfaction.

3. With regard to the other Chiefs also, I trust you will either do this or authorize me to signify your approval to them.

4. The States mentioned in this letter are only small ones, but the abolition even in them is useful as a beginning, and I see no reason why all the Chiefs should not be induced to do likewise.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Camp Gwalior,—(dated Camp Duttia, the 3rd March 1862.)

IN continuation of my letter No. 38 of 24th ultimo, I have the honor to forward copy of Khureeta, dated 28th February, to my address, from the Ranee of Sumpthur, abolishing all Transit Duty on Cotton.

2. I hope you will favor me with a letter for the Ranee, signifying your approval, especially as the Sumpthur Territory occupies an important position on the imperial road from Saugor viâ Jhansi to Calpee and Cawnpore.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Camp Morar,—(dated Camp Morar, the 26th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of Khureeta from the Ranee Regent of Tehree, to your address, dated 5th Chait Budhi, Sumbut 1918, intimating the total abolition of Transit Duty on Cotton in the Tehree State.

2. The Ranee mentions that though loss in Revenue will accrue from the remission, she has determined on the measure on account of the benefits to be expected therefrom to the people, and because she believes it will be agreeable to Government, the wishes of which she is always desirous of meeting.

3. I ought to mention that this Khureeta has been sent by the Ranee without my having to write desiring the remission, though I have of course talked on the subject with her Agent.

4. As Tehree is the oldest and head State in Bundelkund, the example set by the Ranee is more important than could be offered by any other State in this Province. The Raj is very poor also, and therefore the sacrifice is the greater. The remission was resolved on and promised some time ago, but I have only got the Khureeta today.

5. I trust an approving notice may be taken of the Ranee's proceeding by yourself and Government.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Camp Morar,—(dated Camp Morar, the 29th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of Khureeta, to my address, dated 16th instant, from the Ranee of Chutterpore, intimating that Transit Duty on Cotton has been entirely abolished in the Chutterpore State.

2. You are aware that Chutterpore itself is an important Commercial Town on the old and direct Cawnpore and Saugor Road.

3. I beg to bring to notice that this Khureeta has been sent by the Ranee without my having to write desiring the abolition.

4. As mentioned in former Reports, I conversed on the subject with the various Vakeels some time ago.

5. I will enquire and subsequently report the amount of the Duty thus abolished, as information on this point has been called for.

From J P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Camp Morar,—(dated Camp Morar, the 30th March 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copies of the papers to my address, below noted, intimating the abolition of Transit Duty on Cotton in the States of Ajigurh, Bijawur, and Logassee :—

1. Khureeta from Ranee of Ajigurh, dated 23rd February 1862.

2. Khureeta from Raja of Bijawur, dated 2nd March 1862.

3. Khut from Jageerdar of Logassee, dated 2nd March 1862.

2. Like the others already forwarded, these papers have been sent from the States without further communication on my part than conversing with the Vakeels and informing the Chiefs of the abolition elsewhere.

3. From the dates of these papers, it will be seen that they might have come earlier to hand, but they have only reached me today, owing to my separation from the chief part of my Camp.

4. Ajigurh Territory is traversed by the Road from Saugor viâ Dumoh, Lohargaon, Nagode, and Rewah, to Allahabad or Mirzapore.

5. Bijawur has a considerable town, Goolgunge, and attached territory on the old and direct Saugor and Cawnpore Road.

6. Logassee is traversed on this last Road, when the route from Chutterpore viâ Teetpore, Chandpout, &c., is taken, and is also on the road from Jhansi or Nowgong to Banda.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Camp Morar,—(dated Camp Morar, the 1st April 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of Khut dated 6th Chait Budhi, Sumbut 1918, (21st ultimo), from the widow mother of the late Jagheerdar of Behree, intimating the abolition of Transit Duty on Cotton in that Jagheer.

From J P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India—(dated Camp Morar, the 2nd April 1862)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of Khut dated Phagun Sudhi 10th, Sumbut 1918, from the Jagheerdar of Puldeo, the Principal of the Kalinjer Chowbey Jagheerdars, intimating the abolition by him of all Transit Duty on Cotton in his Estate.

2 He mentions that as three of his villages are in the possession of female members of his family, who obstruct the free exercise of his authority in them, he cannot answer for the exemption as regards those villages.

3. As, however, these villages are part of his Jagheer and the females only have them for their maintenance and not for the exercise of independent authority, the question of exemption lies with the Jagheerdar, and I have taken means to secure the exemption also in the villages referred to.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ, Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India,—(dated Camp Duttia, the 4th April 1862)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of a Khut, dated 15th ultimo, from the Jagheerdar of Kampta Rigola, intimating that he has abolished all Transit Duty on Cotton in his Estate, which is one connected with those of the Chowbey Jagheerdars.

From CAPTAIN E. THOMPSON, Officiating Second Assistant Agent, Governor-General for Central India, on Special Duty, Duttia, to J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant, Bundelkund,—(dated Camp Duttia, the 4th April 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of a Khureeta from the young Raja of Duttia, expressive of his anxiety to remit the Duty on Cotton throughout his State, with a view to encourage its more extended cultivation, and requesting me to issue orders accordingly to the Durbar.

2. This step having been taken with the concurrence and by the advice of the Members of the Durbar, I have given them authority to intimate throughout the District that Cotton shall pass free of Duty.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India,—(dated Camp Duttia, the 5th April 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith copy of letter, No. 25 of 4th instant, from Captain Thompson, on Special Duty at Duttia, and of its enclosed Khureeta, to his address, from the young Raja of Duttia, dated 1st instant.

2. In the Khureeta the Raja states that hearing of the relinquishment of the Duty in various Native Districts he desires, with the advice and concurrence of his advisers and the Durbar, that a measure of such benefit for the people should also be carried out in the Duttia State. Orders have on this been at once given for the abolition of the Duty by the Durbar under Captain Thompson's superintendence.

3. The high road from Jhansi to Gwalior traverses the Duttia State, and as this State is at present greatly embarrassed, I think the Rajah's proposal very creditable to him, and I trust he may be favored with your commendation. I ought to add that beyond discussing verbally the advisability of the measure generally, and intimating the abolition in other States, I have not had to make any written or direct application to the Raja or Durbar for the remission.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Indore,—(dated Nowgong, the 2nd May 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of Khureeta, dated 25th ultimo, from the Raja of Punnah, intimating the abolition of Transit Duty on Cotton in his Territory.

2. As the Punnah State is traversed by at least three considerable routes, viz—

1*st*.—Old and direct Saugor and Cawnpore Road viâ Chutterpore.

2*nd*.—From Saugor and Dumoh to Rewah, Allahabad, or Mirzapore, whether by Nagode or a more southern tract.

3*rd*.—From Banda to Myhere and Jubbulpore, viâ Nagode—

3. The abolition is a matter of importance.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Indore,—(dated Nowgong, the 24th April 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of Urzee from the Managers of the Chirkaree State, dated 15th instant, stating that orders for the complete abolition of Transit Duty on Cotton have been issued in that Territory, and explaining that they as Managers did not like to act otherwise than to continue matters set on foot by the late Raja, or obey injunctions from Government, and that but for this the Duty would have been abolished previously without waiting for an intimation of the wishes of Government.

2. As the Managers were appointed by the late Raja, the abolition is quite valid, but as occasionally the Durbar sends communications in the form of a Khureeta from the young Raja, I think the present would be a suitable occasion for such a form in addition to the Manager's letter, and I will let them know this.

From J. P. STRATTON, ESQ., Political Assistant for Bundelkund, to MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor-General for Central India, Indore,—(dated Nowgong, the 5th May 1862.)

WITH reference to (especially the concluding part of) my letter No. 108 of 24th ultimo, sending copy of an Urzee from the Managers of the Chirkaree State abolishing the Transit Duty on Cotton on that Territory, I beg to forward copy of Khureeta, dated 28th ultimo, to the same effect, from the young Raja of Chirkaree.

RESOLUTION.—From the abovementioned papers it appears that the Rule respecting travelling allowance to subordinates and menials in Government Offices, who travel by Rail on the Public Service, varies in the different Presidencies and Provinces.

It is desirable that the practice should be uniform, and His Excellency the Governor General in Council therefore prescribes, as a general rule, that, when subordinate Officers leaving their Head-Quarters on duty are required to travel, their bonâ fide Railway fares shall be paid (except in the North-Western Provinces, where free passes are granted) at the public expense; menials and ministerial Officers who draw less than 50 Rupees a month being furnished with third class accommodation, and permitted to draw, in addition, any daily travelling batta to which they may be entitled under the Rules; and ministerial Officers who receive 50 Rupees a month or upwards being provided with second class accommodation, but disallowed batta, except when the batta allowed to them under the Rules exceeds the Railway fare, in which case they may draw the difference only in addition to the Railway fare.

Cotton Cultivation in America.

The following Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India is published for general information :—

From the RIGHT HON'BLE SIR C. WOOD, BART., G. C. B., Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,—(No. 8, dated London, 8th May 1862.)

I FORWARD herewith, for your Excellency's information, copy of a Despatch* from Her Majesty's Consul at Charleston, to the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, respecting the prospects of the Cotton Crop in the Southern States of America during the present year.

* Dated 19th March 1862.

From ROBERT BUNCH, ESQ., to the EARL RUSSEL,—(No 49, dated Charleston, 19th March 1862.)

THE deranged condition of Postal and other communication between the various States and Districts of the so called Southern Confederacy renders it difficult to speak with entire certainty on a subject of considerable interest, viz., the prospects of the Cotton Crop of this year, or rather as to whether there will be any Crop at all.

Of the Districts in my own more immediate neighbourhood I can indeed say confidently that the production of Cotton will be next to nothing unless some great change in political affairs shall occur within the next two months. This does not appear probable. The Planters, who have not yet felt the effects of the invasion, are employing their hands in sowing corn and other cereals, of which enormous quantities will be required now that the grain market of the North-West is closed.

The "Sea Islands" may be said to be entirely in the possession of the United States. Whether those lands are being prepared for crops under northern auspices I am unable to say, but it is certain that at the best the product will be small. The Negroes are too thoroughly disorganized, and the whole system of labor too much changed to render immediate success possible.

In the South-Western States and the Valley of the Mississipi the operations of War, of which they are now the theatre, must preclude any but the most haphazard attention to agriculture, and, even in Districts which may have been up to now comparatively quiet, I feel assured that but little Cotton will be planted. Corn and grain will monopolise the land.

I have therefore no hesitation in avowing my belief that Europe need look for but little Cotton, the growth of this year. Even were it possible that the restrictions on its shipment could be at once removed by the cessation of the blockade, the demands upon the Railroads for Military services, the conversion of River Steamers into Vessels of War, the destruction of Canals, Bridges, and Roads must operate adversely for a considerable period upon the transportation of the staple from the interior to the coast. It may be confidently predicted that no competition on the part of the South need, for the present, be feared by other Cotton-producing Countries.

Financial Department.

Organization of a Statistical Department.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, under date the 6th June 1862.

READ again Financial Resolution No. 84, dated 13th May 1862.

In this Resolution the preparation of Commercial and Financial Statistics was referred to as one of two objects to be kept in view in the reorganization of the Financial Department.

There is, His Excellency the Governor General in Council observes, a mass of Statistics in the Administration Reports of the different local Governments and among the Records of the various Government Offices, but they are not compiled on any uniform plan nor brought together in any Central Office, so as to shew the Statistics of the Empire.

It is very obvious that it would be greatly for the advantage both of Government and of the Commercial community to have a regular methodical compilation and annual publication of such Returns of Trade, Navigation, and Finance as are published in England by the Board of Trade and the Treasury, and such compilation and publication would, in the opinion of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, be best effected in the Financial Department, which would have most need for Statistical information and has large experience in compiling Statements and Returns received from all parts of India.

The Financial Department must, however, His Excellency in Council observes, be careful to make no demand for Statistical information except from its own Officers, without first ascertaining from the Department of Government concerned whether it can be obtained without overloading public Officers with extra work. As a general rule, the fewer details required, the more valuable and correct will be the information. An intelligent Officer could often himself give a concise Report of the general features of trade in his District, which would be accurate and valuable, while, if he were called upon for complicated Returns, he must leave them to careless subordinates or neglect more important duties.

The Returns of the English Board of Trade should, His Excellency in Council is of opinion, be taken as the basis of action, and each head gone through to see how far it is applicable to India without entailing any serious trouble or expense. Endeavors should be made to induce the different local Authorities to keep their Statements in the uniform Forms thus adopted, or, if kept differently for local convenience, to reduce their figures of measure or value to a common standard.

The Chamber of Commerce will, His Excellency in Council believes, gladly give valuable assistance as to Commercial Statistics. Other branches of Statistics of natural importance might be gradually added, as of population like those of the English Registrar-General and Agricultural Statistics, but this should only be done cautiously, and the Government will abstain from any thing like merely Scientific Statistics, confining itself to those which have an immediate bearing on practical legislation and Government.

A Statistical Society aided and encouraged by the Government, but self-managed and voluntary, would be a most useful adjunct to any scheme of Official Statistics and would embrace many fields of useful and interesting enquiry which a Government could not undertake, while the advice and assistance of its leading Members would be of great use in assisting the Government to frame its own Returns and direct its own enquiries.

Offers of aid have been received from some gentlemen who contemplate the formation of such a Society, and, as a first step towards the practical attainment of the above objects, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to appoint a Committee consisting of

The Hon'ble Mr. Erskine,
" " " Bullen, and
Mr. G. Smith,
and
The Hon'ble E. Drummond,
Mr. Grote, and
" E. C. Bayley,

as representing the Government (with power to add to their number) for the purpose of revising the Board of Trade and other Official Returns, and of reporting to the Government as to the Forms and Regulations which they would recommend with a view to the compilation of an uniform system of Imperial Statistics in the newly created Branch of the Financial Department.

North-Western Provinces and the Punjab.

Report on the Tea Plantations in the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab for 1861.

From WILLIAM JAMESON, ESQ., Surgeon-Major, Superintendent, Botanical Gardens, North-Western Provinces, to SIR G. COUPER, BART. AND C. B., Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces, Allahabad,—(dated Botanical Garden, Saharunpore, 12th May 1862.)

SIR,—I HAVE the honor to lay before you, for the information of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor, a detailed Statement shewing the manner in which the Government Tea Plantations have been worked and the results obtained during the last season.

2. For some time during the season I was absent from my duties, bad health having compelled me to visit Europe on Medical Certificate. During my absence my work was actively and energetically conducted by Dr. J. L. Stewart. To him I made over charge on the 1st of March, sailed from Calcutta on the 24th of March, and returned again on the 1st of November, and resumed my office on the 21st of November.

3. The outturn of Tea during the last season shews a decrease on that of the former year, caused by the great drought during the cold weather and months of April and May. The grain crops throughout the upper part of the Doab were a failure, it ought not therefore to be a matter of surprise that the yield of Tea shews a decrease, particularly as the chief or first crop of leaf almost entirely failed. Considering this, the decrease may be considered small, and shewing how admirably the plant is fitted for the Kohistan of the North-Western Provinces and Punjab

4. The quantity of Tea prepared in the Factories was as follows :—

5. But if there has been a small decrease in the quantity of Tea it has been met by an increase in the produce of seeds, the yield being 2,220 maunds or 79 tons.

Thus:—

		Mds.	S.	C.
Total Mds.		2,220	0	0
6. Add to this the produce of the Kangra Plantation, Maunds ...		1,416	0	0
Total Mds.		3,636	0	0

and we have an outturn of 3,636 maunds or 130 tons.

7. This immense produce has enabled me to give great assistance to private Planters throughout the Kohistan of Kumaon, Gurhwal, Deyrah Dhoon, and Punjab, as will be perceived by the appended Table, which shews that the large quantity of 2,513 maunds or 89 tons of seeds have been distributed gratis to them.

8. In addition to this large quantity of seeds large numbers of seedling Tea Plants, amounting to two millions four hundred thousand, have been or are being distributed. See Appendix B.

9. But though the amount of seeds and plants at my disposal for distribution is immense, it comes far short of the Indents received, new parties seeking other fields than those of the Kohistan of the North-Western Provinces and Punjab to carry on Tea cultivation. Thus, last season a company established themselves at Hazareebaugh, and to them fifteen maunds of seeds were given. To the Neilgherries, too, considerable quantities of seeds have been sent through Dr. Cleghorn, Superintendent of Forests, and by him I have been informed that Her Majesty's Right Hon'ble Secretary of State for India has sanctioned the engagement of some skilled Native Tea-makers from the Government Factories, North-Western Provinces, in order to assist Tea Planters in the Madras Presidency to prepare Tea.

10. Financially the Tea Plantations may be thus considered :—

To lbs. 41,519 15 0	at Rs. 1-8 per lb. =	Rs. 62,279	14	6
2,200 maunds of Seeds	„ „ 20 „ md. =	„ 44,000	0	0
	Rupees ...	1,06,279	14	6
To expense of working the Plantations	...	Rs. 48,000	0	0
	Balance Rs. ...	58,279	14	6

11. To this must be added the value of Tea seedlings distributed, viz., 800,000 seedlings, at Rupees 3 per 100 = Rs. 24,000 0 0

Total Balance ... Rs. 82,279 14 6

12. Of the Teas prepared 16,000 lbs. are being packed for transmission to London for sale in the London market, and the remainder will be sold by auction at Almorah and Deyrah Dhoon in compliance with the orders of Government. Some delay in packing the Teas has occurred owing to the limited establishment of Carpenters, which, however, is being remedied.

13. By private Planters the demands for skilled Tea-makers and Native Overseers to superintend their Factories and Plantation operations is great, and to many, such as Messrs. Dick, Berkeley, Troup, Smith, Knyvett, Mohur Sing, Ramnath, &c., skilled Native workmen have been given

14. Chinese Tea-makers.—Some of the Chinese Tea-makers whose time of service had expired have left Government employ and entered that of private parties being tempted by a much higher rate of pay, and it has been found necessary to give an increase to the remaining Tea-makers. This, however, has been done without any increase to the Establishment, the increased pay being more than met by that of the men who have resigned.

15. Apprentices.—Owing to the small allowance granted to them the number of Apprentices sanctioned by Government has never been quite filled up, and the number now on the Establishment is three, two having left for better paid appointments. Their services have been found highly useful in the Plantations, and could not be dispensed with without detriment to the works going on.

16. Overseers.—Owing to the numerous Tea Companys springing up throughout the Kohistan of the North-Western Provinces and Punjab the demand for experienced European Overseers is increasing. The Overseer of the Kowlaghir Plantation, in the Deyrah Dhoon, has been induced, by offer of higher pay, to leave Government employ and enter that of a private Company. The Overseer, too, of Ayar Toli Plantation has also left for a more lucrative appointment.

17. To conduct the duties at Kowlaghir, in the Deyrah Dhoon, I have deputed the Assistant Superintendent of Tea Plantations, Mr. James Thompson, and Mr. T. Mooney conducts the duties at Hawul Bagh and Ayar Toli. By both parties the works are carried on actively and efficiently.

18. The Paoree Plantation has been made over to Mr. J. Henry from the 1st of April, and will form the subject of another communication.

19. To all the Tea Planters throughout the Kohistan and Valleys of the North-Western Provinces I have sent a Circular requesting information as to the quantity of land now brought under cultivation by them, &c., and as soon as I receive replies I shall lay before you, for the information of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor, a detailed Statement, in order that His Honor may see how the cultivation is spreading.

20. From the Kalee in Kumaon, to the Ravee in Kohistan of the Punjab, the cultivation is being actively and energetically carried on both by European and Native Capitalists, and the day is not far distant when we may expect to see Tea exported from the British Himalays as its staple article of produce, and the Hills made lucrative, instead of, as at present, a drag on the revenues of the country.

21. In a few years the Dehra Dhoon, the most attractive spot in the North-Western Provinces to the European settler, will become a great Tea Garden. In every direction in it Tea Plantations are springing up, and the two things wanted to make them there universal are, in the Eastern Dhoon Drainage and the Western Dhoon, water for drinking purposes and irrigation. The latter might be made available by anicuts being formed near the base of the Himalayas, or at such places where the drainage of the outer Himalayas escapes. It is a fact that at the very time when water is most wanted from the Canals in the Dhoon, viz., in seasons of drought, or even in very dry weather, it can only be obtained in limited quantity, none of the Canals have feeders, and depend entirely on the supply of the water in the rivers from whence they take their rise. In the Deyrah Dhoon the want of water in a dry season is much felt. In the small Canals the supply of water dwindles down to a few inches. Were a few Reservoirs made, therefore, by forming anicuts at the places mentioned, the supply would always be kept up, even to the great Canals. Anicuts made in the interior of the Himalayas on the courses of the great rivers would be of vast advantage, as by them the full supply of water could always be maintained. That natural anicuts existed on the great rivers, Ganges, Jumna, &c., at a recent geological period must be evident to every one who has followed for any distance the courses of these rivers in the interior of the Himalayas, and in our time, or rather during the last twenty years on the Indus, two natural anicuts have been formed by the descent of glacis into the bed of the river, and which has caused it at Attock to be easily fordable. This, however, only remained for a time, as the basis of the anicuts being of a soluble nature, melted and gave way and allowed the waters to escape, carrying with them vast destruction to life and property. The river swept through and over the Chuch Valley, levelling every village. At Attock, where it contracts, it rose fifty feet above its usual level, and the towns of Hanshealgur and Kalaleagh, though built on the banks high above the usual level, were nearly ruined. The river remained fordable at Attock for three months before the catastrophe occurred, pointing out the feasibility of the undertaking were it desirable. To the Deyrah Dhoon it would be a great boon, and the one thing needful to enable parties to inhabit waterless tracts in both the Western and Eastern Dhoons. There, too, to form his anicuts, the Engineer has every thing that he requires in abundance, of Lime Stone, Sand Stone, and Quartz Rock, to form his dams, and the best Lime available at a cheap rate to form his walls of any strength. There are no engineering difficulties to be experienced as occur on the barren volcanic Rock of Aden. But even there, and in a porous rock like Lava, Reservoirs of vast extent have been made, and in them a supply of water, capable of supplying the town with a population of 30,000 for three years, is kept.

Set-off

In respect of lands held or used for the purpose of manufacturing or selling the produce or for trade.

Act XXXII of 1860.
Section XCVIII.
Rules 3 and 24.

WHEN land is held principally for manufacturing and selling the produce or for trade, or when the holding of any portion of the land upon which rent is paid by tenants to whom it is sublet is merely subsidiary to the trade or manufacture, any losses sustained by the person carrying on such trade or manufacture may, subject to the provisions contained in Rule 24, Section XCVIII, Act XXXII of 1860, be set-off against the income or profits arising from the trade or manufacture established on the land, including the rents incidental thereto.

When the produce is regularly sold under an arrangement to that effect to the landlord, and is used by him for the purpose of manufacture or trade, he is to be considered as holding the land for such purpose, and a set-off as above may be allowed. When the tenants have nothing to do with the produce required for the manufacture or trade, the question in each case will be one of degree. If the rents compared with the operations of the manufacture or trade are large a set-off should not be allowed, as in such case the land cannot be considered as solely incidental to the manufacture or trade. On the other hand, if the rents are small as compared with the operations of the manufacture or trade, or if there is fair reason to suppose that the manufacturer took the whole land for the sake of the manufacture or trade and not to make a distinct profit from the rents, the set-off should be allowed.—(Financial Department Order No. 1759, dated 15th March 1862.)

The terms on which the business of the said Treasuries, and the Government Paper Currency shall be conducted by the Branches of the Bank of Bengal are contained in the following:—

AGREEMENT WITH THE BANK OF BENGAL.

ARTICLES of Agreement made the second day of May in the year of our Lord 1862, between the Secretary of State for India in Council of the one part and the Bank of Bengal of the other part: Whereas by the Act XIX. of 1861 of the Legislative Council of India certain provisions have been made for the establishment of a Paper Currency and the payment of the Government Promissory Notes to be issued in virtue of the said Act, and the Governor-General in Council was thereby authorized to establish in British India Circles of Issue and in each Circle to appoint some one City or Town to be the place of issue of Notes, and by the said Act it was declared lawful for the Governor-General in Council, from time to time, by rules to be published in the Government Gazette, to make such arrangements through any Officers of Government, or with any persons, Banks, or Bodies corporate as might be required to regulate and facilitate the issue and payment of the said Promissory Notes: And whereas by a Memorandum of Agreement bearing date the twenty-sixth day of September 1861, and made between the parties hereto, certain terms were agreed to having for their object the transfer to the said Bank of the business of the Government Treasury at Fort William and the superintendence and management by the said Bank for the Government of India of the issue of the Government Paper Currency for the Circle of Issue of Calcutta, and it was thereby, amongst other things, agreed that if at any time during the continuance of that Agreement, the said Bank should establish a Branch Office at any town or place other than Calcutta, and the Governor-General of India should offer to the Directors of the said Bank for the time being, and they should, on behalf of the said Bank, accept the business of Bankers to the Government of India for the district or locality within which such Branch should be established, or the business of issuing and circulating the Government Paper Currency within such district or locality, then, and in every such case, the business so arranged to be taken up and performed by the said Bank should be carried on under and subject to the provisions of that Agreement, and on the basis of certain Clauses cited in the margin thereof, being the third and fifth paragraphs of the Government Memorandum of the twentieth of March 1861, relating to the establishment of such Branch Banks, except in so far as the provisions of that Agreement, or of the said Clauses, might be modified or altered by any special Agreement which the parties thereto might enter into in reference to the business so to be carried on at the particular Branch Bank: And whereas the Bank of Bengal are about to establish a Branch Bank at (amongst other places) Patna, and the Governor-General in Council has offered to the said Bank (who have accepted the same) the business of Bankers to the Government of India for the district of Patna, and the terms on which such business shall be performed have now been finally settled and arranged between the Governor-General in Council (acting in the premises on behalf of the said Secretary of State) and the Directors of the said Bank: Now these Presents witness that for the purpose of carrying out the said arrangement, and in consideration of the payments and covenants hereinafter respectively mentioned and contained, and by and on the part of the said parties to these Presents respectively, to be paid and performed, each of them, the said Secretary of State in Council, and the said Bank of Bengal, doth and do hereby for himself and themselves and his and their respective successors, covenant and agree with the other of them and their and his respective successors in manner following, that is to say:—

1. That the Bank of Bengal shall and will forthwith establish a Branch Bank at Patna and will provide themselves with suitable Offices and buildings in the said City in a situation as near to the Revenue and other Public Offices as conveniently may be.

2. That from and after the day to be appointed by Notification as hereinafter mentioned, the business of receiving and paying money on behalf of the Supreme Government of India and the Government of Bengal, heretofore transacted at the Collectorate of the said Station of Patna, shall be carried on and transacted by the Branch of the Bank of Bengal so to be established at Patna as aforesaid, subject to the provisions of this Agreement and to such orders and directions with regard to receipts and payments as may, from time to time, be given to the said Branch Bank, or to the Bank of Bengal, by the Governor General in Council or any of the Officers of the Government of India or of the Government of Bengal authorized in that behalf, and for the purpose aforesaid such account or accounts shall be opened in their Books by the said Branch Bank with the Government of India and the Government of the North-Western Provinces as the said Government of India shall, from time to time, direct.

3. That from and after the day so to be appointed by Notification as aforesaid, the Cash Balance then in the Government Treasury at Patna shall be deposited with the Branch Bank at Patna, who shall also thereafter receive and hold for the said Government of India and Government of Bengal, respectively, and subject to the order of these Governments, respectively, all Monies and Balances which, but for these Presents, would have been received or held by the Collector of the district of Patna, and the said Branch Bank at Patna shall transact all such business for the Government of India and Government of Bengal, respectively, regarding the receipt, collection, payment, and remittance of Money and Securities and other matters as is usually transacted by Bankers for their Customers, or shall be bonâ fide required for the exigencies of the Government and for all Departments of the Public Service at the Station of Patna, and also all such business regarding the receipt, collection, payment, and remittance of Money and Securities for and on behalf of Officers in the different Government Departments as has heretofore been usually transacted by the Collector of Patna, and shall and will transact all such last mentioned business in such manner, in respect both of Government and individual Officers of Government, as may be, from time to time, required by the existing orders of Government, after due notice thereof given by the Collector to the said Branch Bank.

4. That from and after the day appointed in the Notification aforesaid, the said Secretary of State in Council shall pay to the said Branch Bank the actual costs and expenses of packing and remitting Specie under the preceding Clause, and for which costs and expenses Contingent Bills shall, from time to time, be submitted to the Civil Pay Master of Bengal for the time being, and be passed by him on approval, and shall further pay to the Bank of Bengal the yearly sum of three thousand and sixty Rupees in full of all costs and expenses attendant on the maintenance by the said Bank of the establishment of Clerks and Servants necessary for the carrying on of the said Government Banking Account and business at the said Branch Bank at Patna, and the Bank shall not charge any interest or commission on the said account, except under such arrangement as in the next following Clause mentioned.

5. That so long as the average Cash Balance for any month in the hands of the said Branch Bank at Patna shall not exceed the average amount of Rupees five lacs, the said Branch Bank shall be at liberty to use and employ such Balance, subject to the provisions of the Charter Act of the Bank of Bengal, or any future Act relating to the said Bank, and to appropriate the profit arising from such employment, without being charged with any interest in account, provided always, that it shall be in the power of the Directors of the Bank of Bengal, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, to alter, modify, or increase the proportion of the aforesaid Balance to be specially set aside for cashing Notes herein provided.

6. That when and so often as the monthly average Cash Balance shall exceed Rupees five lacs, the Bank of Bengal shall forthwith set aside such excess or surplus in Cash, to be kept in a separate reserve, on account and subject to the instructions of the Government of Bengal, or shall, at the option of the Directors and at the risk of the Bank, invest such excess or surplus (on account of the Government of Bengal,) either in the purchase of Government Securities or Railway Debentures guaranteed by Government in the name of the Collector of the district of Patna or of such other Officers as the Government of Bengal shall, from time to time, direct, or in the discount of Government acceptances or other claims against Government payable at Patna, and so that such excess or surplus shall be withdrawn from employment as part of the General Funds of the Bank, and so on from time to time, as often as an uninvested surplus Cash Balance above Rupees five lacs shall, on the taking of the monthly average, appear to be in the hands of the Bank, and the said Bank of Bengal shall at all times be answerable and accountable to the Government of Bengal for the surplus Cash Balance for the time being so set apart, or invested at the risk of the Bank as regards realizing the Securities, and shall be entitled to draw and apply the interest, dividends, or profits from such investments to their own use, but the safe custody of such surplus Cash Balance, so long as the same shall remain uninvested, shall be at the exclusive risk of Government in the case of loss from war, disturbance or unavoidable accident.

7. That when and so often as the Cash Balance in the hands of the Branch Bank at Patna shall, on the taking of the monthly average, appear to have been less than the sum of Rupees three lacs, then, in addition to the profit which the said Bank may acquire by the employment of such Balance free of interest, an additional allowance or remuneration by way of compensation shall be made to the Bank of Bengal by the payment, by Government, of interest on the difference between the amount of the actual Balance of Government in the said Branch Bank, exclusive of the proportion specially set aside as a reserve for Notes aforesaid, and the sum of Rupees three lacs, the interest being calculated at the average rate of interest paid by the Public on fixed loans at the said Branch Bank during the month.

8. That all Returns furnished by the said Branch Bank to the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, as also all Official Reports of the Bank's Inspector on the said Branch shall, at all times, be accessible to the Auditor appointed by the Government of India under Clause 5 of the Agreement with the Bank of Bengal, hereinbefore mentioned and in part recited, and it shall also be in the power of the Government of Bengal, at any time and as often as they may think fit, to cause the amount of Cash in reserve held on account of the Government, and the accuracy of the Government Balance in Cash or Securities, to be inspected and verified by any Officer duly authorized for that purpose, but not otherwise to interfere with the ordinary Banking operations carried on at the said Branch, and the report of such Officer, if such as to require on the part of the said Bank an explanation, shall first be laid before the Directors of the Bank of Bengal to enable them to furnish any explanation or further information touching any of the matters referred to in the report, and such report, together with the explanation, shall then be submitted to the Governor-General in Council, whose order, decision, or finding on such report shall be binding and conclusive on the said Branch Bank and the Bank of Bengal, respectively.

9. That the said Branch Bank, during the continuance of these Presents, shall and will, to the utmost of their power, pay and satisfy, on demand, to the holders, the amount of all Government Currency Notes duly issued within the Circle of Calcutta under the said Act XIX. of 1861, which shall be presented for payment or conversion into Cash at the Office of the Bank in Patna.

10. Set-off

In respect of lands held or used for the purpose of manufacturing or selling the produce or for trade.

Act XXXII of 1860.
Section XCVIII.
Rules 3 and 24.

WHEN land is held principally for manufacturing and selling the produce or for trade, or when the holding of any portion of the land upon which rent is paid by tenants to whom it is sublet, is merely subsidiary to the trade or manufacture, any losses sustained by the person carrying on such trade or manufacture may, subject to the provisions contained in Rule 24, Section XCVIII, Act XXXII of 1860, be set-off against the income or profits arising from the trade or manufacture established on the land, including the rents incidental thereto.

When the produce is regularly sold under an arrangement to that effect to the landlord, and is used by him for the purpose of manufacture or trade, he is to be considered as holding the land for such purpose, and a set-off as above may be allowed. When the tenants have nothing to do with the produce required for the manufacture or trade, the question in each case will be one of degree. If the rents compared with the operations of the manufacture or trade are large a set-off should not be allowed, as in such case the land cannot be considered as solely incidental to the manufacture or trade. On the other hand, if the rents are small as compared with the operations of the manufacture or trade, or if there is fair reason to suppose that the manufacturer took the whole land for the sake of the manufacture or trade and not to make a distinct profit from the rents, the set-off should be allowed.—(Financial Department Order No. 1759, dated 15th March 1862.)
